No new tax needed in city's '73 budget

By HENRY CANTIN

A 1972-73 general operating fund budget of $6,451,546 has been approved by the Romulus City Council. The city's fiscal year began Saturday.

The new budget, which does not call for any increase in the city's current property tax assessment, provides for annual wage and salary increases for department heads and non-union employees.

The council approved the budget after June 27 a public hearing. There were no citizens' objections presented at the hearing.

In the absence of Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael due to unavoidable personal commitments, City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar asked the council if it wanted to hear the views and recommendation so the major on the proposed budget.

Council president Jimmie Raspberry stated that the matter for the public hearing was a proposed budget tentatively approved by the city council. "We have received the mayor's recommendations," he said.

The city's current tax levy for city operation is 5.50 mills ($5.50) per $1,000 assessed property valuation, state equalized.

The budget represents an increase of $340,415 over the total expenditures of $6,111,131 in the 1971-72 fiscal year.

The total property tax levy is $12.50 mills ($12.50) per $1,000 of assessed property valuation, state equalized. This includes 5.50 mills for city operation, three mills for water and service and four mills for debt retirement.

The total budget expenditure includes $2,687,071 for city operations, up from $2,310,095 last year; a local and major street budget of $623,500 as against $361,050 last year, motor vehicle budget, $294,975 compared to $299,700 last year, and a water and service budget of $2,837,000 as against $3,141,286 last year when Romulus assumed maintenance and road repair previously performed by the Wayne County Road Commission.

Under the new budget, department heads will receive an annual salary boost of $500 each. Non-union employees, consisting of three secretaries and the deputy city clerk, will receive pay increases ranging from $500 to $800, which are subject to U.S. Pay Board approval. These employees have received 5.5 per cent pay hikes allowed union-covered employees.

A union-city contract covering 40 to 55 city employees was approved by the council in April.

Mayor Carmichael, in his report to the council, said,

"I would like to commend first the city council for its very timely budget deliberations this year. Secondly, I would like to point out that I feel as does the city council that 5.5 mills are adequate to meet the needs of the city."

The mayor did not attend any of the budget sessions conducted by members of the city council. The council, in scheduling its budget sessions, did not invite the mayor to participate.

The mayor, in his report to the council, made recommendations and suggestions. He said in part:

"What we (the administration) suggest however, is somewhat of a rearrangement of the funds presently allocated by the city council. We intend to show that there is a definite need in the city to maintain current employment levels."

"There is a need in several departments to expand the current employment levels. There is a need in the planning area of the city to expand more funds that the city council has provided, a need to provide additional funds for non-union salaries."

In order that we may provide the services demanded of the city by the citizens and its own employees, there is a need to provide an additional department to handle the personnel function of the city."

The budget eliminated all EEA employees hired by the city. The mayor's proposed expansion of the city's building department and the establishment of a personnel department were also eliminated.

The council approved by the budget by a 5 to 1 vote. Councilman William M. Oakley voted against the budget, while Councilman Ellis T. Pennington was absent.

Meeting changed

A regular meeting of the Romulus City Council will be held at 8 p.m. tonight (Wednesday).

The council meeting date was delayed one day due to Tuesday's observance of the Fourth of July.

Parade drew 20 units

The annual spring parade sponsored and supervised by the Romulus Jaycees on June 25 attracted 20 units and a large crowd.

The parade began at Kennedy Park in Romulus, proceeded east along Goddard Road to Wayne Road then north of Wayne Road to the carnival site, which was part of the annual spring festival and parade.

In the parade were units of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies. The Romulus Baseball Association included several of its teams.

Other highlights of the parade were the Ginger Bread House made by Eugene Santa Gritale of Romulus, old cars and bicycles entered in the parade by the Waltz Centennial Parade Committee.

The Jaycee Auxiliary entered a float called the "Candy House." The parade officials also had the cooperation of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Division and the Romulus Fire Department. Michael Pawelak was parade chairman.

City workers limited to 5.5 per cent hikes

Romulus city employees covered in a union contract approved by the Romulus City Council on April 5 are limited to 5.5 per cent of the salary and wage boosts embraced in the three-year contract, the Internal Revenue Service has announced.

The contract negotiated by Local 214 of the Teamsters,

State, County and Municipal Workers, called for pay and salary hikes of 13 per cent the first year and six per cent in the second and third year. The increases are retroactive to Nov. 14.

Of the increases approved, 5.5 per cent became immediately effective in line with the guidelines set forth by the U.S. Pay Board.

House numbers aren't easily seen

The inability to locate house numbers immediately in some areas of the City of Romulus by law enforcement personnel is causing lost "valuable" time and expense, the city council was told.

Councilman Fred Junior Block reported to city council last week the problems that police officers have in trying to locate house numbers when answering calls.

He asked his colleagues on the city council on what could be done to compel city residents to have their house numbers placed in conspicuous locations to make it easier for police and other city agencies to locate house addresses.

Councilman James C. Stewart pointed out that residents are required to see that their house numbers are placed where they can be seen immediately.

Council President Jimmie Raspberry thought that publicity on the matter, urging residents to make sure that their house numbers are visible at all times, would do much in solving the problem.

Class openings remain

Openings remain available in the cultural and social summer program, sponsored by the Romulus Community Workers, at the Neighborhood Action Center.

The openings are in classes for crocheting, modern dance and music.

Nearly 100 persons have signed for instructions in handicraft, catering, basic and advanced drawing and drama.

Classes will be held Monday through Thursday at 3-7 p.m. at the center, 35351 Beverly Rd.

THREE WHO CARE—Three mothers, members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Romulus Youth Baseball Association, helped wash cars to raise funds for the association teams. The car wash, held last Friday at Martin's Marathon Station at Wayne and

Romulus city council defers U.R. budget

Formal approval of a proposed 1972-73 operating budget for Romulus' Urban Renewal Department has been deferred.

Council President Jimmie Raspberry, at the council's June 27 meeting, announced that the proposed budget had not been received by the city council. He instructed City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar to inform Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of this fact.

Mayor Carmichael was absent from the council session due to "unavoidable personal commitments."

The urban renewal department's proposed budget calls for estimated total expenditures of $123,405 from April 1 to June, 1973 — a 15-month period.

The budget is up about $20,000 from the previous 12-month period due to increases in wage and salary hikes given city employees under the city-union contract.

George Wilhelm, urban renewal director, said that he had submitted a budget to all members of the council. He said the budget was tentatively approved before council's okay of a contract with Local 214 of the Teamsters' state, county and municipal workers.

He also reported that he had submitted in April to council members and the mayor a revised budget, which included wage and salary hikes given to city employees.

Approval of the budget by the U.S. Housing and Urban Development (HUD) awaits final approval by the city council, Wilhelm said.

The 15-month operating budget is being proposed to bring Urban Renewal Department on an annual basis.

Raspberry's announcement on council not receiving the budget was apparently referring to the fact that the proposed revised budget had not been formally presented to the council by the mayor, it was stated.

Hire-kid program needs more jobs

"Help! Help! Help!" says Earl Lamb, chairman for the Romulus Job Placement and Hire-A-Kid programs.

"We have loads of qualified applicants for all kinds of work but we're short of jobs," said Lamb.

Lamb issued a plea to employers Monday for any kind of jobs for Romulus residents who have filed for work through the center.

"We need parttime, fulltime and temporary jobs of all kinds. Please contact us if you have employment available," Lamb implored of local businessmen and agencies. Hours to call the center are between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday. The phone number is 941-7980. Volunteers will be on duty to accept calls.

PCHA 'distortions' clarified

By PAM WATT

PCHA board members last night expressed dismay that a letter from the state auditor's office to the state attorney general's office questioning certain authority procedures had been kept hushed.

But, more upset were the Peoples Community Hospital Authority officials — and legal counsel — about the manner in which certain newspapers used the letter and allegedly distorted facts.

An area newspaper had charged that a memo from Arthur G. Rochon, examiner in the treasury department, sent to Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley last September indicated the PCHA had operated contrary to a court order on personnel and financial practices.

Last night B. Ward Smith, legal counsel for the hospital authority, covered the letter item-by-item, answering questions the treasury department had directed to the attorney general nine months ago.

According to Smith, there was "not a single charge of any wrongdoing" in the letter.

After the letter was sent to Lansing, top PCHA officials were contacted and asked to answer certain inquiries in the report pertaining to various procedures.

Board members apparently had not been told about the memo, because it was termed a "first progress report" in the beginning of an inquiry into the PCHA which Ecorse city officials and then PCHA officials had requested.

According to Smith, all matters in the letter had been straightened out by him and Donald J. Pizzimenti, board chairman, and several other officials who helped the attorney general's office in its inquiry.

The attorney termed the letter as "confidential," stating it had not been his place to release it to board members.

Smith explained the memo to members last night, referring to each item on which the PCHA was questioned through the attorney general and reiterating how it had been straightened out.

For example, Smith said, an item questioning reimbursements to the PCHA for Cycle turnout is small

Van Buren Township Police Chief John Willet Sr. was "disappointed" at the turnout at a cycle safety program conducted at the Belleville Senior High School last Thursday evening.

Approximately 40 young persons attended.

The program, entitled "Cycling Safety and Laws," included a 45-minute film produced by Honda of America and talks by Steve White of the AAA and Michigan State Police Officer Roger Kirkpatrick.

The cycle safety program was sponsored by the Van Buren Township recreation department being conducted under the direction of William Loyd.

Willet stated that, with the large number of motorcycle and mini-bike owners in the township, he expected a larger attendance at the cycle safety program sessions.

He said that those who did not attend missed a "good" safety film on cycle operation and driving and "excellent talks" by members of the AAA and Michigan State Police.

Mrs. Chaney cites busing in House bid

Mrs. Nancy Chaney, 32, of 5882 Daniels, Taylor, head of the Citizens Against Busing in America (CAB), is seeking election for the state representative post in the 38th District.

Mrs. Chaney, a Democrat, will compete in the Aug. 8 primary election against incumbent State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak of Romulus, who is seeking his fifth term, and Elmer Parraghi, former supervisor of Sumpter Township.

MRS. NANCY CHANEY

The only Republican running for the post is Joanne B. Elliott of Flat Rock.

Mrs. Chaney and her husband, Ronald, employed by the Great Lakes Steel Corp., are the parents of two daughters, Rhonda, 9, and Barbara, 11.

In commenting on her candidacy, Mrs. Chaney said Rep. Mahalak "hasn't come out against busing. Our group has said that it will do everything it can to get politicians, who haven't responded to the people's views, out of office."

"More than 85 per cent of the voters in the 38th District are opposed to busing," said

Hoffman to seek 2nd term

Clarence J. Hoffman Jr., 34, of 45100 Dunn Rd., Sumpter Township, former township clerk, is seeking re-election to another two-year term in the Aug. 8 primary election.

Hoffman, first elected to the township board in 1968 when he ran for a four-year term as trustee, was elected clerk in 1970.

Before taking the oath as clerk, Hoffman had to resign his trustee's post on the board.

In last week's issue, it was inadvertently reported that Hoffman was seeking his first term as clerk and that he had been previously appointed to fill a vacancy on the township board.

Hoffman, married and the father of two children, has been a resident of the community for the last 27 years. He also served as township constable. He is employed by the Ford Motor Co.

Hoffman, along with other members of the township board, were ousted in a special recall election held on May 16.

Mrs. Chaney, "yet Mahalak was against a state anti-busing amendment and against a motion to bring that amendment to a vote a second time."

Mrs. Chaney, a licensed practical nurse, recently was elected a precinct delegate committed to George Wallace in Taylor. She is the secretary of her school PTA in Taylor. A member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, she was a Girl Scout troop organizer and leader.

The CAB has been active since last September, when Federal District Court Judge Stephen Roth ruled Detroit and its suburban school districts were guilty of "de jure" segregation.

The 38th District includes the western portion of Wayne, most of the City of Romulus, Sumpter Township, Huron Township and the northern portion of Monroe County.

Rubbish contract amended

The Romulus City Council has approved the inclusion of an additional clause in the city's new three-year rubbish collection contract prohibiting any subcontracting without city council's consent.

The council acted following a suggestion by Councilman James C. Stewart that the new contract contain such a clause to prevent any trucks other than those of the city-approved rubbish collection contractor picking up rubbish in the City of Romulus.

Stewart reported that he heard reports that this has occurred.

The city council approved a rubbish collection contract several weeks ago with the American Rubbish Disposal Co. of Plymouth.

The motion to approve the contract amendment was made by Councilman Fred Junior Block. He was supported by Councilman William M. Oakley. The motion was unanimously approved.

Mulberry resigns board

Gene F. Mulberry of 37815 Wick Rd., Romulus, has submitted his resignation as chairman of the Romulus Board of Appeals, a post he has held since 1970.

The Romulus Council accepted the resignation with "regrets" and instructed City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar to send the council's thanks and appreciation for services rendered as chairman of the board of appeals.

Mulberry reported that his firm is transferring his job out of the city.

A successor will be named at the next council session.

PCHA clarified

wives attending conference trips was termed a "typographical error" by the letter's author, Smith said.

Instead of reading such expenses "were reimbursed by PCHA," the sentence should have read "were reimbursed to PCHA," Smith said.

He said the attorney general's office, after discussion, agreed that it did not take a 2-3 vote of the board to approve a revised budget, something which had been questioned in the letter.

Pizzimenti last night released copies of a letter sent to Smith Wednesday from the attorney general's office, which dears the board of any wrongdoings in handling expense accounts.

The letter cites the one of nine months ago and explains that, after further information was received, a revised staff report was issued by the treasury department to the attorney general's office.

The new report "shows that officers and employees attending conventions had submitted expense accounts and that proper returns of unused advances were made, and that no authority funds were expended for lodging or meals for wives of officers."

The letter also noted that the board had formally amended its expense policy in January to conform with a court order and that all expenses of all officers and employees in the PCHA were being handled in accordance with the court order.

Several board members still criticized Pizzimenti and Smith for keeping the report secret, maintaining that, had they known about it and discussed it at a meeting, it never would have erupted into the issue it has caused during the past week.

Tracy Salisbury, member-at-large who was recently recalled from the Ecorse City Council, called the new letter a "whitewash job," however, maintaining that several discrepancies still existed in PCHA matters which were being ignored.

Salisbury took credit for the improvements which had been made since the time the inquiry began. He was on the Ecorse council when it passed the resolution demanding that the state attorney general investigate the PCHA, after which the PCHA board immediately followed suit to prove if there had been wrongdoing.

He called certain parts of the old letter a lie, particularly a reference to him which states Salisbury "presented no documentation" to his city council to substantiate his allegations against the board, on which he was serving.

Salisbury said last night he had provided documentation and insisted he had more evidence of wrongdoing. He said his only interest in "starting this mess" had been to get the board to "stop doing things I felt were wrong."

Salisbury refused to answer when questioned by board members to produce his evidence, a tactic he has used several times before with the board.

Ypsilanti representative Timothy Dyer lashed out at the newspaper which had first printed the story on the nine-month-old letter, calling it "yellow press at its worst" and a paper which did "not investigate stories."

Dyer termed the paper a "harassment" which would "print anything" and "an insult to the board and people."

LIBRARY HOLDS ANNIVERSARY — The Romulus Public Library, 11121 S. Wayne Rd., marked its first anniversary last Friday. Many area residents attended the affair, touring the library and inspecting its facilities. Among the early arrivals viewing a wall picture display with Miss

"Tennis Anyone?" asks the Southern Planning Council of the Western Wayne County YWCA.

Tennis instruction will begin immediately at a Romulus court if there are sufficient registrations, says Mrs. Sue Stolmar, coordinator for the council. Six lessons will cost $12 to members. For more information call Mrs. Stolmar at 551-4110.

Those who serve on the planning council from Romulus are Mrs. Lorena Burton, Mrs. Edith Roundtree, Mrs. Nolene Suisse, Mrs. E. W. McAnally, Mrs. Bea Suiter and Mrs. Dorothy Ball.

Council resets citizens' 'time'

Citizens' discussion periods before Romulus City Council will be conducted earlier at future council meetings.

At the suggestion of Council President Jimmie Raspberry, the council last week approved the rescheduling of the discussion period.

Raspberry, in asking to shift the discussion period, pointed out that at previous council sessions it was a late hour in the evening when the citizens had their opportunity to speak before the council or ask questions.

Mayor Smith platform is larger than budget

Mayor Royce E. Smith of Belleville says his campaign for the Democratic nomination for state representative in the new 22nd District is going to include "a bigger platform than budget."

"I might be running on the smallest budget ever spent for a state office," the 56-year Smith, an eight-year, four-term mayor and former Wayne County supervisor, said this week.

"But it has been my experience from some 14 years in public office that if I am fortunate enough to be elected by people of this district to represent them in Lansing, I don't want to go there with any ties, or owing any favors for financial assistance."

That doesn't mean Smith won't be asking for "support" of another kind, however.

"I have a specific platform which is being publicly presented and on which, if citizens of this district agree, I am asking them for support by giving me their vote and encouraging that of their friends and neighbors," Smith said.

In brief, Smith's platform stresses the following:

1 — State tax reform for public education by eliminating the tax on residential property, replacing it with a graduated income tax at state level.

2 — Stronger state and local cooperative programs for vocational education in which government would help set up programs and facilities for training.

3 — More intensified efforts for better roads, water, sewer and drainage for areas which need them.

4 — Increased and modernized police service, partially a program which would offer college training in criminal justice to returning servicemen and possibly some subsidization for his early employment with police departments.

5 — Help to communities in certain recreation and pollution problems—such as those local communities are experiencing with Ford and Belleville lakes.

Despite a certain emphasis on cooperation and subsidized programs by government, Smith said his platform should not be construed as in any way endorsing further state or larger government controls.

"Quite the contrary he states, 'I am specifically for local controls at all city, county, township and particularly school district levels'."

"It has always been my relief that the only areas government of any kind should get involved in are those in which the citizenry or private business either cannot, or cannot reasonably, handle for themselves.

"The programs I propose in my campaign platforms are those in which state government should mainly assist local governments — at some points even relinquishing existing controls and jurisdictions."

In addition to his 14 years in public office in Belleville and Wayne County governments, Smith has been distributing agent for Atlantic-Richfield Oil Co. since 1947.

It's time to sign for LL football

Romulus Little League Football teams will kick off their fifth year of activity on Saturday, July 15, when boys between 9 and 12 years of age will register at the Romulus Civic Center.

According to Dave McCrory, registrations will begin at 9 a.m. and continue through 5 p.m. when more than 100 boys are expected to register for one of the three divisions sponsored by the association.

Boys who are accompanied by a parent, have a birth certificate and pay a $10 fee, may be assigned to the Freshman, Junior Varsity or Varsity divisions, McCrory said.

The season will begin on Sept. 10 and continue through Nov. 5, with eight games scheduled.

Auxiliary helps buy equipment

The Women's Auxiliary of the Romulus Youth Baseball Association is resting from a few hectic weeks of activity to raise funds for the 31 Little League baseball teams sponsored by the association.

Mrs. Marge McCrory, auxiliary president, reports that last Friday's car wash, held at Martin's Marathon Station at Wayne and Wick roads, was so successful that it left the mothers' soaking wet, exhausted and $62 closer to their $5,000 fund raising goal for this year.

"We had to quit at 4:45 p.m., not because we had run out of cars because we really did a brisk business, but we had to hurry home and get ready for a game that evening," she explains.

A ceramics raffle, held June 25 at the Jaycees carnival netted profits from 116 raffle tickets. Winners were Mrs. Grace Kiss, Kenneth Bird and Mrs. Mildred Hall.

"The rest should be easy," Mrs. McCrory observes. "We are having a bake sale at Vescio's on July 8 and a paper drive on July 15." Those wanting papers picked up at their homes may contact Mrs. McCrory at 941-3349. Ms. Gladys Finch at 941-8618 or Mrs. Virginia Bird at 941-1037.

An awards night is also in the planning, says Mrs. McCrory. It is scheduled for Monday, Aug. 14, at the Romulus Senior High School auditorium.

Another highlight of this year's season will take place July 13-15 when Romulus hosts the Senior League Playoffs at the Romulus High School baseball field.

Campers caught betwixt and between...

By DON HOENSHELL, Daily Eagle Lansing Bureau chief

Rowdies on motorcycles and afoot are invading the quiet family playgrounds at Michigan's state parks demanding money and terrorizing campers.

Law enforcement officers are overwhelmed and fearful vacationers are demanding protection.

Legislators who earmarked $155,000 for 20 new officers to handle the problem are fighting mad at the prospect that somehow they might be held responsible for the violence.

And there it is, another classic clash between the generations that nobody wants to admit or to which nobody can find a handy solution.

"These kids aren't immoral, they're amoral," said Col. John R. Plants. "Nobody has taught them values, to respect other people and their property."

Plants, director of the Michigan State Police, said he will order his troopers in the field to patrol the parks whenever possible in the hope that visible force will help.

The incident which created the furor occurred at Houghton Lake State Forest Campground on the Memorial Day weekend when 200 to 300 youths pounded on cars, barricaded a road and demanded money from campers.

Warren Shapton, deputy director of the Department of Natural Resources for field operations, ordered the campground closed under after July 4 or until "the DNR can afford fulltime supervision."

Rep. William R. Copeland (D-Wyandotte), chairman of the House appropriations committee, called a summit meeting with Plants, DNR officials and National Guard General Clarence C. Schnipke.

Copeland and Rep. Russell Hellman (D-Dollar Bay) made two points in a shouting match with sufficient decibels to rattle the capital dome:

Keep the parks open and don't blame us.

They were counseled to present a low profile to forestall escalation of the invasions on the one hand and to prevent unreasonable fears among vacationists.

"Dammit, I don't want to be careful," Copeland shouted. "You don't treat these young hoodlums with kids gloves."

What angered Copeland and Hellman was the implication by Shapton that the DNR couldn't afford fulltime supervision when the legislature had provided $155,000 last year.

"They haven't even filled the positions we authorized," Hellman said. "I'm getting tired of getting the blame whenever a department gets in trouble."

Plants knows probably better than anyone that, by the time law enforcement people arrive at disturbance in the park, it is usually all over and whatever damage there may be is done.

And 20 men cannot provide fulltime supervision at the state parks all over the state.

But even a massive hiring of officers won't solve the problem when it spreads to the scores of federal campgrounds where Michigan officers have no jurisdiction.

Thus there was a typical reaction: Growing fear among the campers who enjoy a quiet vacation with the kids, the demand that police do the impossible and the fear among political people that they will be blamed.

The commentary on society takes two directions.

— Politics has reached the point where every major problem is approached either by money or bluff and instant solutions are demanded.

— Nothing is ever done until a crisis arrives and the gears of destruction have been set in motion.

Copeland ordered Plants and the DNR to coordinate their effort to restore peace to the parks. They have scheduled meetings to talk it over.

Gen. Schnipke said he couldn't send National Guardsmen into the parks without a declaration of emergency by Gov. William G. Milliken, which in itself would create a greater public fear.

"Lacking that, I really don't know what my role can be," he said.

And nobody has the power to embue the young with retroactive responsibility - but there is still time for their younger brothers and sisters.

And as Milliken and others have stated, the real task lies before adults and their institutions.

Another opinion

Give lottery jobs to qualified jobless

Politicians being what they are and patronage being a valued adjunct to the political trade, one probably should have predicted the hassle in Lansing which has delayed the start of the multi-million dollar state lottery operation.

Legislation to set up controls and persons who will operate the legal betting machinery are the points of contention.

Democrats do not want a single, all-powerful commissioner such as has run the state-controlled liquor business in the past. This single "czar" could be appointed by Gov. William G. Milliken.

Were this to happen, the Democrats might not have their hands in on dispensing the considerable patronage which goes with putting up ticket-issuing machines in communities all over the 83 counties.

Hence the Democrats seem to lean toward a three-member commission which would be of mixed political persuasions.

Several proposals have been put forth by the Democrats. One of them would require an assistant director, not of either the party of the director or governor, to be in charge of the betting machinery.

When this compromise did not meet approval the Democrats asked for a recess to huddle.

When the Democrats, who rule the House and have a 19-all standoff in the Senate, will agree on a single plan has not been obvious. By the time this appears, the hassle may have been settled.

Involved in setting up the machinery are a number of well-paying jobs, plus hundreds of others throughout the state such as the scores of offices of the Secretary of State's department, so the patronage issue is one made to order for a partisan squabble.

As an example, Rep. David S. Holmes (D-Detroit) has suggested a plan whereby the governor, with the chairman and one other officer of the major opposition party, picking an assistant director with a $32,500 salary. The proposed pay for the director would be $35,000.

Add to these the hundreds who will fill local positions in dispensing tickets and you have juicy plums with which politicians can strengthen themselves in the hustings.

Under Holmes' plan, the assistant director would be of the political party, either Democrat or Republican, represented by the two politicians meeting with the governor. This plan is further conditioned by the proviso that if the man chosen director has no identifiable party affiliation, the assistant could not be of the governor's party.

So, the further it goes the stickier it gets, and the mind boggles. But the politicians, faithful to the party's interest and perpetuation, see sense in all of it.

While we are not naive enough to believe that this is going to be settled in a nonpartisan manner, the temptation is to wish it could be settled by bipartisan agreement that the jobs go to qualified men and women who are in need of work.

We have thousands of unemployed persons who are qualified in Michigan today.

Because these workers undoubtedly will come under the civil service umbrella, we would hope the choices would be made judiciously and to persons to whom the legislators are not politically beholden.

Today's unemployed include thousands of persons who are college-trained, such as qualified teachers now in an excess profession.

Thousands are young and deserving with families to support. In our opinion, these people, no matter what their political persuasion, are more deserving than political persuasion, are more deserving than political hacks now employed.

Let's be selective in doling out these jobs.

For the rest of us, it is equally unthinkable that Blue Cross should be spent where the authorities feel there will be a continuing health care.

It's easy to be objective about this. It's not Hills and Dales Hospital that is on the threatened list... one of the hospitals "not programmed for future expansion or existence." Not this year anyway.

Hills and Dales became the hospital for the area after Caro turned down Hill-Burton funds because there was no local interest.

Hospital licenses are renewed each year and anything is possible.

Perhaps in another decade Cass City could be on the phase out list. It's not unthinkable.

Still, the tremendous increase in rates for health care makes it mandatory that the hospitals and the entire system of Blue Cross insurance payments come under closer scrutiny.

That there have been abuses goes without saying. Blue Cross should not be required to make payments to every hospital. Hospitals should not have the unrestricted right to the insurance regardless of cost in relation to services performed.

On the other hand, maybe it's time for a new system of hospital payment... a system that might lessen the tremendous costs by making it less expensive for the subscriber if he uses the service less. Make it a matter of self-interest to reduce costs.

We need a continual pruning of the excesses in our health care system.

Anything else is... unthinkable.

Several key bills top House agenda

Pushing toward its summer recess, the House is in the midst of a heavy workload that requires long hours of floor sessions.

Included are appropriations bills. The House, having cleared all of its own budget measures, faces seven appropriations bills previously approved by the Senate. They cover school aid, colleges and universities, junior and community colleges, the department of education, mental health, corrections and drug abuse appropriations.

There will also be an effort to pass a substitute version of a Senate bill which creates a state lottery and obtain Senate concurrence before the recess. This will be necessary if the lottery, approved by voters in the May 16 election, is to be started sometime in the fall.

Another key item is no-fault auto insurance. The House insurance committee is expected to report out a no-fault bill, reportedly a substitute version of a measure passed the Senate.

Top priority goes to the budget bills. In a number of instances, the House and Senate will have to work out differences in their two versions of the same appropriations bills and it may be that some will be forced into House-Senate conference committees.

Although the House appropriations committee made few changes in the Senate editions of several budget bills, the huge school aid bill in particular is bound to take up much time on the House floor and possibly in conference committee.

The bill emerged from the House Appropriations Committee at $1.138 billion, or about $27 million more than the Senate version, but still $24

By Edward E. Mahalak
State Representative
38th District

million less than the House Education Committee Recommended.

The bill also contains controversial sections dealing with teacher retirement and the transportation appropriation is uncertain because of the Detroit School desegregation order.

In reducing education committee recommendations, the appropriations committee trimmed $10 million from the municipal overburden section, $3 million for a program for high unemployment districts, and reduced certain special education funds and the budget for vocational education. The committee also cut $600,000 from the transportation allocation.

In the retirement section, the appropriations committee incorporated a schedule of retirement allowance increases for teachers who retired after July 1, 1956. This would cost an estimated $4.3 million.

However, the most controversial retirement provisions may be the contribution increase for outstate teachers, from three per cent on the first $4,200 to five per cent on all earnings. Coupled with a benefit increase that would benefit outstate personnel making less than $8,400 a year.

Some opponents of the provisions, including the Michigan Education Association, contend they are illegal because they require higher-income teachers to pay for benefit increases they will not receive. The bill makes the benefit increases contingent upon a ruling of the State Supreme Court as to the legality of the provisions.

The higher education bill was increased about $5.7 million over the Senate version. Several schools would receive substantial increases from the Senate version for academic or program improvement; that is, money that can be distributed to departments at the university's discretion.

Michigan State University received $2 million of the increase, the University of Michigan $2.4 million, Western Michigan University $700,000 and Eastern Michigan University $400,000.

The community colleges bill was reported at $57.6 million, corrections at $39.6 million, drug abuse programs at $5.2 million, mental health at $218.9 million and the Department of Education at $37.3 million.

Alternate solution listed for lake, park

EDITOR'S NOTE—The following letter, addressed to Donald Pizzimenti, Public Relations Department, Detroit Edison Company, was made available as a letter to the editor:

The recent action of the Board of Trustees of the Township of Van Buren, which in essence rejected your offer of Belleville Lake and Edison Point Park, has prompted me to request your consideration of viable and desirable alternatives. My concern is enhanced as I live on the lake.

Living on the lake, I would be most distressed if it were sold to private interests. Allowing the more crass commercial development would retain a tax base for the township, but as a public utility I believe it is your responsibility to seek a more civically concerned solution.

The most desirable alternative to Van Buren Township acceptance of the property is that it be secured by the community of Belleville. With the lake and park, Belleville could grow and prosper, as annexation would be eagerly encouraged and sought, at least by those of us residing near the lake and park.

The positive development of this property would give real impetus to Belleville's efforts to annex additional contiguous areas. I am sure the tax base of the lake's property owners, that Belleville could gain, would much more than cover the costs of maintaining the dam. This would make it immediately economically feasible for Belleville.

The second alternative would be to offer the property to nearby communities who may consider a lake and park desirable properties. The popularity of Camp Dearborn makes it obvious that you should be able to secure this desirable alternative very readily. A study of the facilities, resident permit system, and organization of Camp Dearborn should persuade a desirable community to seek the lake and park, its responsibilities and privileges.

It would be desirable, and just, that you secure an accommodation and assurance of lake privileges for the local residents who live on the lake. Detroit Edison should also require assurance and commitment of a responsible development of the park property, for both esthetic and ecological reasons.

Undoubtedly there are other alternatives you have considered. However, as a public utility you have a responsibility and an obligation to see that the property is transferred to a community that will develop it and maintain it as a park and recreational facility for its people.

While this transfer will remove the property from Van Buren Township and other tax roles, it will also relieve Van Buren from any real or imagined liability. It will leave the Van Buren Township recreational fund untapped, secure from use in developing park and lake facilities.

To some it may seem a bit strange to have the park and lake owned by another community, closed to local residents, but this is much preferable to a commercial development of any kind, with its assured loss of the park and possible loss of the lake.

I believe Detroit Edison has the responsibility to see that the character of the lake and park are retained; that these properties are transferred to a community that will maintain them for the enjoyment and use of its people.

At Baptist Church

Morin-Leonard vows solemnized June 24

Grace Baptist Church in Belleville was the setting June 24 for the double ring rite which united Linda Gene Leonard and David J. Morin in holy matrimony.

Red and white gladiolas and mums adorned the altar as the bride approached on the arm of her father. The Rev. Bill Gram presided at the seven o'clock nuptials before some 150 friends and relatives.

Parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leonard of 8621 Heather Drive, Ypsilanti, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Morin of 191 Clarence Street, Belleville.

A SPECIAL GUEST, Chuck Hoagland, recording artist for Sound-Pak label, sang his latest release, "A Part of Today", during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gownned in a floor-length, A-line silhouette of re-embroidered lace on silk organza. Styling details included a high neckline, elbow-length sleeves, and a detachable wattleau train. Delicate rose buds adorned the waist and neckline with four rows of lace bordering the hemline.

A tall headdress of lace topped with a cluster of organza roses secured the bride's elbow-length veil of silk illusion and she carried cascading red rose buds and white carnations.

ATTENDING THE BRIDE were Mrs. Linda Sue Capelle of Belleville as honor attendant and Charolette Leonard of Ypsilanti, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid.

They wore identical frocks in mint green dotted swiss and pastel pink, respectively. Fashioned in the empire mode, the gowns were accessorized with Camelot headpieces securing chapel-length veils. Their bouquets of carnations were tinted to match their ensembles.

Dressed in a yellow, toe-touching frock was the bride's three-year old niece, Angela May Leonard, who was flowergirl. The little nosegay she carried was comprised of yellow carnations surrounding red rose buds.

Seven-year old Mark Morin carried out the role of ringbearer.

The bridegroom asked Frank Hoagland of Ypsilanti to be best man and groomsmen were Lloyd G. McClure, the bridegroom's brother-in-law from Belleville, and Larry A. Leonard and Gary L. Leonard, the bride's brothers from Ypsilanti.

THE EAGLE'S HALL in Ypsilanti was reserved for the reception which followed with some 200 guests attending. Receiving friends and relatives in formal gowns were the bride's mother in pale turquoise crepe with silver accessories and the bridegroom's mother in powder blue with gold accessories. Both were presented with corsages of white carnations encircling red rose buds.

For traveling on their honeymoon trip to Northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Morin chose a white cotton lace pant suit. The newlyweds are planning to make their home in Belleville where both Linda and David graduated from High School, she in 1967 and he in 1968. The bridegroom, a graduate of Universal Engineering School, served with the U.S. Army for two years. The bride is employed as a nurse at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Prior to the wedding, the Henry J. Morins entertained at a rehearsal dinner at their home on Clarence Street.

The Hoags have resided at their present address for 49 years.

Nehez-Jaszcz vows set for September 1

During a birthday dinner June 19 for their daughter, Barbara Lorraine, Mr. and Mrs. N.J. Nehez of 16650 Savage Road, Belleville, announced her engagement to Victor Lee Jaszcz.

The bride-elect, who is planning a September 1 wedding, was graduated in 1968 from Belleville High School and this past April from Eastern Michigan University where she was an art education major. She is now employed in the art department of E.M.U.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jaszcz of 47253 Lauren Court, Belleville. A 1968 alumnus of Belleville High, he graduated from Washtenaw Community College in 1971 and is now employed at Draw-Tite, Hoover Ball Bearing Company, Belleville.

Dorins 're-wed' in mock nuptials

CHUCK AND MARY Dorin, spending a quiet summer evening with guests, were surprised beyond words when car after car began pulling up in front of their home on S. Biggs Street ... and even MORE surprised when they began unloading and piling into their place with shouts of 'surprise!'

Instigated by Wally and Dorothy Skszek, the caravan of neighbors, former neighbors and friends came to wish the Dorins a happy 25th wedding anniversary, along with all the necessary "fixin's" for a gala party.

The highlight of the evening was the mock wedding under the direction of "Bishop" Skszek who not only remarried the pair, but gave his blessing with a squeegee mop. Ernie Patke was on hand to solemnly give the bride away and her two sisters and their husbands, Sadie and Hugh Kemp and Annie and Dan Ciocan, took on the roles of attendants, the former two filling the parts they actually played in the Dorins' wedding 25 years prior.

A happy remembrance of the event - a canopied swing - was given the Dorins from the Skszeks and Patkes, the Arthur Wiertell, the Bernard Walls, the Harvey Stabnaus, Ruth Carter, Thelma Carter Sommer, and Jenny Stalmach. Still others in on the gift-giving were the Doug Liedels, the Bill Szabos, the Darryl Raymonds, Jr., the Chuck Minthorns, the Gene Dudas, the Don Walteres, the Frank Days, and the Jerry Masons.

Visiting with the Dorins at the time of the 'onslaught' were the Ciocans of Dearborn, the Kemps and Fred Baditot of Denton.

SEVERAL DAYS later, on the 25th, the Dorins held open house at the Bethany Baptist Church with some 135 friends attending the silver celebration.

A lovely wedding cake, the work and gift of a neighbor, Annie Riggs, was served along with assorted cookies, punch, and coffee. Mrs. Arleen Williams of Jackson presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Hugh Kemp and Mrs. Dan Ciocan assisted with serving, Mrs. B.P. Hopson and Mrs. Elsie Robson arranged the tables, and two nieces of the honored couple, Jane and Ruth Ciocan, took charge of the guest book.

Before arriving at the church, the Dorins entertained 65 close friends and family members at a catered dinner in their home at one o'clock. Guests were from Portland, Ionia, Jackson, Birmingham, Highland Park, Detroit, Dearborn, and Belleville.

Mary is Rio exchange student

MARY KOSIN, eldest of the Chet Kosin's daughters, is in Rio De Janiero as an exchange student for Youth for Understanding. Taking her leave with some 150 other young people from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio, she departed Metro Airport June 21.

Mary, who'll be a senior at Belleville High this fall, is the 'foster daughter' for the next eight weeks of Senor and Senora Humberto Mel Torres. With their four children and two maids, the Mel Torreses occupy the entire sixth floor of a nine-story apartment building in Rio, Mary says in her initial letter home.

While away, Mary will be an art student at the Brazilian Society of Fine Arts - a first-time opportunity in this field.

Bride-to-be is 'showered'

DEBRA HATCHER was the honored guest June 22 at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Charles McBride and Charlotte McBride at their home on Cordell in Romulus.

Some 30 guests from the Romulus area as well as an aunt of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. Ethel Calvette of Marquette, attended. Games with a wedding theme were played after which a buffet lunch was served and the bride-to-be unwrapped her pretty gifts.

Debra will become the bride of Michael McBride July 8 at Prayer Baptist Church in Westland.

Infant christened; party follows

LITTLE ANDREW Scott Ostrowski was just a month old when he received the sacrament of baptism June 11 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Father Raymond Skonec presided at the eleven o'clock rite.

The baby's God-parents, Jill Jahner and Walt Kilanski, both of Wayne, were among the 25 guests who later attended a dinner party at the Sumpter Road home of the baby's parents, Larry and Vicky Ostrowski.

Here 'n there... Around the town

THE HAZEN W. GIARS of Savage Road are back in town after spending five days in the East with her son and daughter-in-law, John and Lee Bundtzen of Southport, Connecticut. The Giars made the trip especially to attend the graduation of their first grandchild, Michael Bundtzen, at Fairfield High. When the Giars returned, via plane, they had Mrs. Bundtzen and her two youngest, Carol and Stephen, along. The trio will be here to visit other relatives and friends for the next three weeks.

MRS. DEBBIE REDMOND of 9951 Harrison, Romulus, was a surgical patient at Annapolis Hospital, Wayne, recently. She underwent an operation on her knee June 19 and was able to return home a week later. Her activities will be somewhat hampered, though, since she's restricted by a leg cast which won't be removed until July 31. BACK IN ROMULUS and bearing greetings from the Louis Balints are Mr. and Mrs. Steven P. Hamerink of Hannan Road. The Balints, formerly of Belleville, were their hosts during a recent visit to Harbor Heights, Florida where the Balints are in the process of building a new luxurious home.

Honeymooners and tourists from Japan have turned the largest and most populous of the Mariana Islands into a booming vacation resort.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Independence is a day by day privilege that must be earned. It is not a concession we can take for granted. Let's not forget this is an historical significance of July 4th.

In our American way of life, we have more privileges than any people on earth. We are privileged to worship God where and when we wish ... privileged to work where we choose ... privileged to educate ourselves to any degree we wish ... privileged to qualify for better jobs ... privileged to seek and earn better living conditions ... privileged to travel where and when we wish ... privileged to express our thoughts, to agree or disagree with our fellow men.

The prelude to our privileged life dates back to 10 years before the American Revolution when Patrick Henry shouted his immortal words, "Give me liberty or give me death!" And ever since, our privileges have been bought and blessed with the blood and sacrifice of valiant men. As heirs of our heroic dead, would it not be fitting and proper for all of us to bend our knees and fold our hands on July 4th — and give thanks to God for the privilege of being an American? ...

Democratic national post is out — Mrs. Chapman

Mrs. Josephine Chapman, of 259 E. Huron River Dr., Belleville, a George Wallace leader and vice chairman of the Michigan national convention delegation, says she's not interested in being national committeewoman.

"I'm not going to consider being national committeewoman," she said.

The Michigan delegation will select a national committeeman and committeewoman at the convention in Miami next month.

Mrs. Chapman, mother of three boys, took issue with reports that she and James McNeely, state Democratic chairman, had agreed she would support him as delegation chairman in return for his support on the committeewoman vote.

"We made no agreement," she said.

A telegram from Wallace had proposed that Mrs. Chapman be named national committeewoman for Michigan and Arthur Cullers of Battle Creek be named delegation chairman.

WHAT A DESSERT!—That all-American favorite, ice cream, is the star of this easy-to-make dessert, Crispy Ice Cream Pie. The crust and topping feature crisp rice cereal which adds just the right amount of crunchiness to contrast with the ice cream. A great way to give a party personality to a simple dessert. (Courtesy of Post Pebbles.)

Let's clean our parks

City children with no place to go and nothing to do are getting help from concerned citizens who are turning debris-filled vacant lots into "vest pocket" parks. To be successful these mini-parks must be planned by the whole community. One of the main problems is keeping new (and old) parks clean. The Pepsi-Cola Company urges everyone to support the "Protect Our Parks" program: Leave your park cleaner than when you found it. Your neighbors may get the idea!

Cotton is the only major fiber that increases in strength when it's wet.

A girl can dream, can't she?

This time you're absolutely going to save something out of your paycheck. But, then, you really do need that pantsuit, a new coat and, of course, that perfume Eric likes so much.

Before you know it, the money's gone... and all you've got saved are your dreams.

That's why the Payroll Savings Plan is such a good idea for a single girl. When you join, an amount you specify is set aside from your check and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. And, it's all done before you get your check—so you can't help but save.

And then you'll find those Bonds a solid investment for the future, if your dream man ever gets serious.

And if he doesn't—well, at least you'll have a little travel fund stashed away. Who knows who you might meet on that wonderful cruise?

Either way, U.S. Savings Bonds can help a girl keep dreaming... and every girl needs to dream.

Now E Bonds pay 5 1/2% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months & 1 day. The first year's interest is paid in cash. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Now Bonds mature in less than six years.

Ice cream pie for all seasons

Ice cream is one of the most popular of desserts and a year-round favorite with almost everyone. Fortunately for ice cream lovers, we've come a long way since Dolly Madison served "frozen pudding" at a formal White House dinner over 150 years ago. Soon afterward the popularity of ice cream spread throughout the land. Sundaes, sodas, and cones became part of the American scene.

In recent years pies have been added to the ice cream repertoire. They're a grand way to make a special dessert of ice cream and yet are easy to prepare. Especially easy Crispy Ice Cream Pie which features crisp rice cereal as crust and topping. Vanilla ice cream has a great affinity for crisp rice cereal — fruity flavor, and coffee ice cream goes especially well with cocoa flavor. The result is a tasty crunchy-smooth treat.

Another delectable use of crisp rice cereal is in an Out-Of-Hand Snack where it's combined with peanuts (or other nuts) and raisins for a tasty snack time munch.

Crispy Ice Cream Pie

2 cups crisp rice cereal—cocoa or fruity flavor
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1 quart vanilla ice cream

Combine cereal and butter; toss lightly to coat. Set aside 1/2 cup. Press remaining cereal evenly into a well-buttered 8-inch pie pan. Chill about 1 hour. Fill with ice cream. Sprinkle with reserved cereal. Freeze. For ease in serving, dip pie pan just to rim in warm water for a few seconds; then cut and serve. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Out-Of-Hand Snack

1 cup crisp rice cereal—cocoa or fruity flavor
1/4 cup peanuts or other nuts
1/4 cup raisins

Combine cereal, peanuts, and raisins in bowl; mix well. Serve as a snack. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Amy Vanderbilt's etiquette

Her compliments should be sincere

By AMY VANDERBILT

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: What is one to do when with women who expect to be complimented on their clothes? I find myself ill at ease with them, not knowing what to say. One woman mentioned to a friend that she knew I didn't care for her dress as I had made no mention of it. What would be in good taste and let me remain honest? — Mrs. D.N."

I, too, believe in being honest in these matters. As you know that certain women do expect to be complimented, on their clothes, say whatever complimentary thing you can say without lying. For example, "What a pretty color," "That's very new, isn't it?" Most women accept such comments as compliments. If you are asked the direct question, "Do you like my dress?" and you definitely do not, remember if you say so you will cause unhappiness and perhaps lose a friend. Say whatever good you can of it, perhaps commenting on the workmanship, the fabric, the cut. After all, your eye may not be used to a new line or color if the dress is avant-garde. In a few months it may look all right to you as well. Think about the fashion changes you came to accept in time.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: What do you do about late dinner guests, and those who come early? — Mrs. G.V."

Unless such guests are guests of honor, you do not wait more than say 15 minutes beyond the time when dinner was to be served. The late arrivals seat themselves promptly without long explanations. The hostess does not rise and the only man aside from the host rising is the gentleman to the right of the late-coming woman to be seated.

Every guest has a nightmare that he will be first. Guests who come too early usually do feel embarrassed as do hosts who are frequently not ready. When this happens, the only thing to do is to pass it off with good humor and go about whatever preparations still need to be completed. If necessary, seat the guests in the living room or elsewhere and say that others will be along very shortly. If possible, have some member of the family see that they get refreshments.

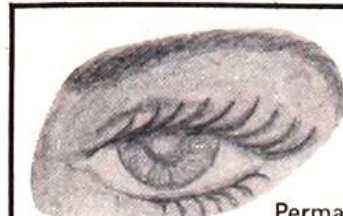

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: Is there any courteous way to quiet drunken or otherwise unruly guests in your home? — Mrs. C.E."

Such guests are not necessarily men these days. If it is a man, the host or some man acting as host, should take him aside and tell him that his behavior is not acceptable. Sometimes he must be told tactfully or if necessary, very firmly, that he should go home. When a woman is in this condition, the hostess has the responsibility to do something about it, so that other guests are not made uncomfortable. She might say, "Sally, you've had a little bit too much to drink. May I see that someone gets you home safely (or 'would you like to lie down for a bit')? Do not serve any more liquor to such a person and tell him why. If all else fails, close the bar and quietly explain to the other guests that this particular problem is too much for you. (If there is no way at the moment to get the objectionable guest out of the house).

Pfeiffer-Sobecki wed

Central Michigan students married at St. Anthony's

In a double ring ceremony June 3 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Cynthia Sobecki of Belleville became the bride of Joseph Pfeiffer of Pontiac. The Rev. Raymond Skoney presided at the five o'clock nuptial rite before an altar appointed with vases of yellow and white mums.

The bride's cousin, Pam Bies, was at the organ to play traditional wedding selections.

Parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sobecki of 45065 Bemis Road, Belleville, and Mrs. Sophia Pfeiffer of 118 Rea, Pontiac.

ESCORTED TO the sanctuary by her father, Cindy appeared in a toe-touching creation of chiffon with the long, full sleeves cuffed in lace. The lace motif was also used on the high stand-up collar and again as appliques on the A-line skirt.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH PFEIFFER

Her floor-length Mantilla veil, bordered in lace, was caught to a small lace pillbox. Completing her ensemble was a cascade bouquet of white carnations, miniature pink roses and stephanotis.

The bride's best friend, Sharon Volgyes of Belleville, was asked to be maid of honor. Her blue and white print polyester frock was designed with a blue satin midriff and bow and the white daisies she wore in her hair were secured by a matching bow. Her bouquet was comprised of white roses and blue tinted carnations.

Bridesmaids were Rita Turner, the bride's sister from Louisville, Kentucky, who wore an identical ensemble in green and white; Dianne Goczy of Ypsilanti, in lilac and white; and Debra Chapa, of Pontiac in yellow and white. Each wore a matching headpiece and carried white roses and carnations to match their dresses.

NINE-YEAR OLD Debra Moncrieff, daughter of Mrs. Rosalie Moncrieff, wore a dress to match that of the honor attendant. Her miniature cascading bouquet contained blue carnations and white roses.

Best man was Tom Barnes of Pontiac, the bridegroom's best friend. Others on the esquire side were Frank Sobecki, Jr., brother of the bride; Bob Goczy of Ypsilanti; and Richard Chapa of Pontiac.

At the reception, which followed in the P.N.A. Hall, the bride's mother greeted the 200 guests in a floor-length gown of mint green polyester crepe trimmed in white lace. Her corsage was comprised of green carnations. Mrs. Pfeiffer chose for her son's wedding a beige satin formal gown to which she added her corsage of pink carnations.

The newlyweds have both been attending Central Michigan University at Mount Pleasant for the past three years. Cindy, who is a medical technician major, is completing a year of training at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak. Her husband, a chemistry major, will begin his senior year in the fall.

Prior to the wedding, the bride's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at their home on Bemis Road.

Over the summer

Children must keep in touch with words

Don't let your child close his mind now that the school doors have closed for the summer, recommend two Michigan State University educators.

Dr. Donald E. Hamacheck, professor of counseling, personnel services and educational psychology at MSU, emphasizes that it is essential for children "to keep in touch with words."

This can easily be done, he explains, by taking the child to the library and letting him pick out his own books.

If children do not keep in touch with words they do lose the skills they learned in school, reports Dr. William Walsh, professor of elementary and special education.

He explains that the average child graduating from the fourth grade probably reads at a slightly higher level than that grade (4.5). When he returns to school in the fall, however, he will probably read at the 3.5 level.

Both professors explain that summer school is valuable but summer is an important time for children to grow outside the routine, formalized system.

It is encouraging, Dr. Walsh says, that summer school is no longer only remedial in nature. In the past, only the slow learners went to summer school in order to pick up the skills necessary to pass on to the next grade in the fall.

"Now there is a renewed interest in summer school and it is far more socially acceptable.

Enrichment programs, such as arts and crafts classes, swimming lessons, band and typing, are blossoming in school districts throughout the country. These are ideal for broadening the child's education, they conclude.

Especially in summer.

Because she had a Gas air conditioner added to her Gas furnace. And so the same dependable and economical blue flame that warms her home all winter now cools it all summer—using the same blowers, ducts and registers.

Now it's a total comfort system that's quiet, clean and economical. In fact, a Gas air-conditioning system costs only about half as much to operate as an electric system. So, if you have a Gas furnace, you're already a long way toward a great year-round comfort system.

Don't wait. Call your local heating and cooling contractor or Michigan Consolidated Gas Company representative today.

He'll show you how easy it is to love your Gas furnace... winter and summer.

PCHA approves hourly workers' 18-cent raise

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) last night gave its stamp of approval to a two-year contract for hourly rated employees which will give them an across-the-board hourly hike of 18 cents.

The board also approved a life insurance policy program for salaried employees, but not before Rev. Kurt Heidmann, Wayne councilman, voiced strong objections to the formula under which he charged the new benefit was arrived.

PCHA representatives have been negotiating for months with the hourly employees, a period climaxed by picketing two months ago during a board meeting.

One of the major points of contention was a demand from the employees that binding arbitration be included in the contract. PCHA officials have maintained they are forbidden by the state from submitting to binding arbitration, the sixth step in the grievance procedure.

In the new contract, the authority has agreed to go to court and seek a legal decision on whether or not it can include binding arbitration in its grievance procedure.

The 18-cent-an-hour raise reflects a 5.5 per cent increase. The contract was ratified by Local 79, Service Employees International Union, AFL-CIO, Wednesday night.

According to PCHA officials, of the 1,100 employees affected by the new contract, 263 voted, approving it by a 16-vote margin.

The board also improved the pension plan for hourly employees and included major medical benefits in the contract.

A proposal to provide life insurance for salaried employees equal to 1½ times their annual base salary was approved, 19-12, with Rev. Heidmann voicing opposition to the rationale behind providing that for salaried employees and only $5,000 insurance for hourly employees.

Rev. Heidmann maintained the board was working under the assumption that fringe benefits should be equal to the salary differential of the various classes of employees.

Hourly workers' raise to cost PCHA $28,000

"It's a way of opening up the door to very great inequities," he said.

He explained that he had no objection to the employees getting whatever salary they were receiving, just to the extra remuneration.

He said he felt the differential between the employees "ought to be reflected in salaries, not fringe benefits."

Charles Younglove, at-large member who is regional president of the Steelworkers Union, argued that the proposal was "not dealing in good faith" with the union employees.

According to Donald Pizzimenti, board chairman, the board felt justified in approving it since the hourly employees increase, including fringe benefits, had come out to 6.5 per cent, while the salaried employees' increase was 6.12. The life insurance proposal brought them both in line.

Younglove argued that six per cent of the salaried employees' earnings were much greater than that of the hourly worker.

"We make them believe it's the bottom of the barrel," he charged, but have more put aside for the salaried workers.

According to Pizzimenti, the union had not requested it in the negotiations, while the administration had asked for it for the salaried employees.

The proposal will cost an extra $28,000 annually.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S horoscope

Tomorrow's forecast from the Carroll Righter Institute

General tendencies: A wonderful day and evening to quietly enjoy wherever you happen to be this holiday period and especially to tune in on nature's beauties, or to do the things that bring you peace, tranquility and the understanding of ideas you wish to guide your actions in the future. Think in terms of a new approach to long-standing interests.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Long-distance matters and persons need to be handled well now, whether by mail or telephone. Consult with new contacts and have a better understanding of what is happening around you. Show more consideration for neighbors, too.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Paying more attention to intuitive promptings is wise today, since they can be more helpful and accurate. If you are diplomatic with those at home, this can be a most delightful evening. Courtesy is most important now.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Sitting down with allies and good pals and talking over important matters makes this a most productive day, p.m. for you. Forget about going off on tangents. Get on the good side of others by paying honest compliments.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) You have fine ideas about how to handle special work you have to do efficiently, as well as civic matters. Evening is excellent for impressing higher-ups. Show you have true ability, charm.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Prove to associates that you have great ability and give them the boost and confidence they need at this time. Experts will appreciate you more if you are open minded. Change attitude with kin in p.m. and get good results.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Whip up some enthusiasm for the work at hand and you get it done accurately and quickly. Cooperate more with associates. Take the right treatments to improve your health.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Now that you can be with a partner, find out what is expected of you and do you utmost to cooperate and show your ingenuity. Don't give in to what an opponent desires of you. Be sure to stand up for your rights.

Scorpio (Feb. 23 to Nov. 21) Discussing your plans with partners who are concerned is wise and will lead to some good agreement. Buy the clothing you feel will give you a new look, make you most attractive. Stop cheating yourself.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You have an opportunity for recreation you enjoy and can be with congenials you really like. Take a little time for exercise and tune up your health. Do only that work that is necessary.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you are not careful, you could touch off some big argument at home, so be diplomatic. Make your home as happy and harmonious as you can. stop sacrificing so much and you will be much happier.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are thinking cleverly and quickly and can accomplish a good deal that was impossible before. Get errands done and make appointments early. Buy the supplies that make you more efficient.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Money is much on your mind, and the quickest way to make some is to cut down on expenses right away. Then get into some new outlet that adds to income. Your hunches are very good and should be followed.

If your child is born today he or she will be one of those charming young people with an excellent mind who will assist others to see everything more clearly. However, this youngster seldom does anything for others unless asked, since this is a studious mind. Teach early to cooperate with others more in order to have real rapport with everyone. A certain amount of sports necessary here, since the energy is quite great. Give spiritual training early. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to You!

19th and 20th century artists

Smith College art display at museum

A virtual "Who's Who" of European and American artists opens at the Detroit Institute of Arts today with the arrival of the Smith College Museum of Art collection.

The display traces the development of modern art through key examples of almost every major style of the last 150 years.

"The exhibition of 58 19th and 20th century paintings from this exceptional university collection is a tribute to the excellent taste of individuals who guided its growth since 1877 when it was begun on the Northampton, Mass. campus," said Dr. Frederick Cummings, assistant director of the Art Institute, who has installed the show in South Wing ground floor galleries. The exhibition remains through Aug. 13.

European masterpieces include two Picasso paintings,

"La Table" of his synthetic cubist period and "Les Miserables" of his earlier "rose period"; Edouard Manet's haunting "Portrait of Marguerite de Conflans"; Claude Monet's turbulent "The Seine at Bougival"; Gustave Courbet's complex "Dressing the Bride" and many others. American artists of the 19th century include Thomas Eakins, Albert Bierstadt, William Merritt Chase and James Abbott McNeill Whistler.

Twentieth century artists are represented by Gris, Morandi, Kirchner, Leger, Sheeler, Tanguy and Franz Kline.

The collection displays a number of unfinished works of great painters because, in purchasing, Smith could not compete financially with major museums for finished canvases and, as a teaching tool, "fragments" may well convey the great work of an artist as much as a finished example.

New admissions policy at museum

A new admissions policy is now in effect the Detroit Institute of Arts, but parents will be relieved to know that all children under 12 are free.

The "Pay What You Wish" system also leaves the exact amount of contribution up to the visitor.

Some $234,000 must be raised by the Art Institute during the next 12 months to maintain the current level of operation and to keep the 101 galleries open six days weekly, including Saturday and Sunday.

The new discretionary fee includes a "suggestion" of $1 adults and 50 cents for students. The only requirement, however, is that the visitor pay something, even if it is just a penny.

Free admission, in addition to youngsters under 12, also is extended to senior citizens, students in organized school or tour groups, and the Founders Society, the membership group which privately supports museum activities and art purchases.

The Institute of Arts is open daily, except Monday, from 9:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

The museum's most popular work of art, the mummy of the nameless lady from Thebes buried about the time of Christ has been re-installed in the new mummy display after months of restoration by conservators.

"A paragon of ancient beauty," commented William H. Peck, curator of ancient art.

Archie Bunker has little book of sayings

By JERRY BUCK
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What do Chairman Mao and Archie Bunker have in common? Each has his own little book of sayings.

Mao's book is Red red. Archie's is a patriotic red, white and blue.

Mao's thoughts are revolutionary. Archie's are no less inflammatory but much funnier.

"The Wit and Wisdom of Archie Bunker," newly published in a paperback by Popular Library, is a compilation of Archie's outrageous remarks from CBS' "All in the Family."

The man who gave currency to "stiffle," "dingbat" and "meathead" speaks out on sex, race, politics, Women's Lib and many other subjects.

Much of the book records exchanges between Archie and other members of the cast, but here are a few short examples:

"Wages and prices. It's what you call your spiral staircase."

"If you're gonna have your change of life, have it right now! You got exactly 30 seconds ... change!"

"Well, I'll tell you one thing about Richard Nixon. He keeps Pat home. Which was where Roosevelt should have kept Eleanor. Instead he let her run around loose till one day she discovered the colored. We never knew they was getting' the short end of the stick and we been havin' trouble ever since."

"When I wanna learn about pollution, it won't be from no millionaire actor who's got nothin' to do but sit on his duff and dream up causes. If he wants to unpollute something, let him unpollute the movies. All them nudies."

"It's moments like this where the only thing that holds a marriage together is the husband bein' big enough to step back and see where his wife is wrong."

In some cases Archie's humor comes through more clearly than on the show because you can see in print his misuse of words. For instance: "You're taking it out of context." "It's just a pigment of your imagination." "This political percussion is over as of here and now." "Smells like a house of ill repute, if you ask me."

'My Three Angels' continues at Barn

"My Three Angels" continues at the Macomb Theatre At-The-Barn Thursday through Sunday.

Adapted from the French farce by Albert Husson, the play tells the tale of three convicts from Devil's Island who use their particular and peculiar talents to assist a sadly harassed shop keeper and his family.

Curtain is 8 p.m. at the theatre, Hall Road (M-59) at Garfield. Admission is $2.50.

•THE VOLUME OF MAIL involved in piloting five Newspaper Columns, one being a lonely hearts type production, gets pretty heavy at times. But our mailbag these days shows a marked increase in adjectives related to BEAU-J'S LOUNGE, 1309 Inkster Rd., at Schoolcraft, in Redford. People have never lacked for nice things to tell us about the Beau. But here of late they're bordering on outright adulation in praising the attributes of a pair of people named "THE FRIENDS". The scope of "The Friends" ability seems endless and ONE letter actually sent me back to look and listen again the next night! It's true, they're weighty Entertainers; capable of everything the word Entertainer implies. If you want to hear it, name it! They'll give you a rendition you'll be sorry you didn't tape. You'll do like us, and like a LOT of folks who let us know they, too, went back again. And, at Beau-J's Lounge, you'll be listening with the help of something like Capital-P-Rime and maybe Martinis or Manhattan. by the JUG! So take your pen along. We love to hear you agree with us!

•OPENING YESTERDAY for a 12 day engagement at THE IRON MASK LOUNGE, 28949 Joy Rd., in Westland, was a four-man Louisiana-based Group named "MANCHILD". And if you've listened to Folk-Rock before, you'll understand why they had to. MAD TO open on Independence Day! A group combining each his own metaphors, similes, and ability, they build a conglomerate Gospel - Jazz - Folk - Rock block of harmony and sound light enough to sound like one voice, and somewhere, deep in the background, dissonant enough to add spice to the Louisiana potpourri that will capture your mind and spark your imagination. You'll remember the name "Manchild" long after they're gone, and hear it again, and again. The great spaghetti, the Siciliano Pizza, the ooh-such bunny-type fry toters ... these don't change! But there's something new and BIG out Westland way, and it's MANCHILD. And Bob Cione has 'em, live and lively...GO. Travel 3 blocks E. of Middlebelt and STOP. Child of man has never come on stronger.

•THIS ONE LADY WROTE me a letter...she said, "Well I never!" But I read it all, Margie, and I say you MUST have! Everybody goes to THE DANISH INN, at 3205 Grand River, in Farmington. A handsome young man named Robert Nelson, who owns a national string of Figure Salons named "Playgirl", no less, is opening his newest just down the street from The Danish Inn and now aspires to become the 1st male Customer of his own establishment, having once discovered Dick's Chef-ing and Pat Flowers blues and soul! "If the Indiana HQ can't find me at the Salons," he sez, "they'll just have to write to The Danish Inn!" So I was thinking, Margie, whenever people ask you who's between us...you don't have to tell 'em. You can just say we're at the "Inn" at the same time, all the time. Let 'em think you go there to see Bob Nelson. Or to enjoy the greatest Danish food this side of the Ocean. Of course, Bob is like me. HE knows a good figure when he sees one, too. AND the greatest Danish food this side of the Ocean. Do you know, Pat Flowers can put this whole story to music, and people will NEVER figure out what gives with us?

•ANOTHER THING WE CAN DO, is spend a pleasant hour in another world. Astronauts aren't the only people who can get away from it all, you know. We can go to the HI LOY RESTAURANT, at 29195 Plymouth Rd., just E. of Wixomland. A little piece of native China is tucked away in the snug Shopping Center on that corner, where it can and DOES service large crowds of people seeking TRUE Cantonese Cookery! If you've been to San Francisco or Hawaii and remember how different, and how GOOD Chinese Food can really be, this place will make you a little nostalgic. It did me, but you just CAN'T be sad, when you're full of Crisp Egg Rolls, Sweet & Sour Shrimp, Chicken and Pork, Wo Dip Harr, with fresh Shrimp and Bacon & Almonds, Plum Sauce, or, OH! Margie, BUCK TOY! That'll send em scurrying for Dictionaries, Money. In the meantime, you and me...we know where it's at. Listen, what makes people ask you what we're up to? Fill 'em fulla Beef Tenderloin Chop Suey, Isay, and they'll be content with their OWN needs. And they'll be busy calling 425-8020, so HI LOY can pack some up for 'em to take home!

•"A CHAPERONE", I told my Gal, "is someone who can no longer make the team, but is still in there intercepting the passes." This doesn't phase her. "Mother goes with us," she sez. Okay, so what can I do but compliment Mother on her good taste? After all, we were going to the CARRIAGE HILL, at 27200 Cherry Hill, in Dearborn Heights! And a reservation for T.V.O. on Sat'd'y nite DOES mean two! But we toasted Mama as she sat on the gigantic hearth that runs along one wall...with a line of other hopefuls who were waiting for tables...and it was a sizeable line...with a sizeable reason! The Carriage Hill Menu boasts a magnificent choice of Seafood, Fresh and delectable...like my love. Rare beef. Crisp Salad. Effervescent Desserts. Big libations. Enough? NOT at Carriage Hill! There's the DON MCKENZIE COMBO, whichizza story in itself. Don's artistic talent extends in many directions, even to the gifted portraiture that people are buying right off the walls, which is NOT the reason we did the pictures! His scope shows, too, in the musical arrangements that keep the sweet-swing and BIG-band lovers lining up! Itza beautiful package. Like my girl...and her Mother.

•HOW MANY YEARS AGO (if you know, don't tell) did we arrive by the "jalopy" full at Old Grand River & 12 Mile (NOW the I-96 Wixom Exit) for BBQ'd Ribs & Chicken, still wet from the lakes, shouting, laughing, as if there was no tomorrow? Then Fred & Bea Burleigh came on the scene...and the place became "The Continental"...just a real nice place to stop. And they made friends, and prospered...and their family grew. Then, with the place established...and a job well done, it was time to retire. And their Son, Don took over. And with his Wife Betty and their young family, he REALLY began to make things happen. Soon there was the NEW "CONTINENTAL LOUNGE & RESTAURANT". Still a friendly place to go. And still the old-time Roadhouse idea...but with a today slant! You'll still see the neighbors dropping in, but now you'll find long dresses in the crowd here in there. And Chef "Lanny", who treated us well at the London Chop House and the Scotch'n Sirloln, began to create. And Little Miss Marry put her Geetar onstage, where she can reach it every Saturday & Sunday evening. And it became "that great big old new place...you know, where everybody's going...out Grand River." And we're back where we started from. Having just as good a time for a couple hours. And laughing because now there IS a tomorrow. And the new "Continental" is part of what makes it happy!

•VICTORS, at 34410 FORD RD., in Westland, is getting to be the no-liquor Family Dining place to be seen. And a guy like me, who always treats the first person to recognize him, should remember that! But I get to thinking about the great fare and the plain American Menu...with the just-Italian-enuff flavor...and I keep going back...and getting recognized! "Aren't you CAP PATRIC?" shouted the beautiful young lady. "Yes, Ma'am" I allowed...and looked around for her check. "I haven't ordered yet!" said pretty Nancy Bartolo. "Just hold on your wallet." So I waited...and thought how pretty her Mommy is, too! And kinda dropped my Petoskey Stone string tie into my pocket...before I can't afford to be recognized anymore! And in the meantime lovely Nancy put away a quarter-lb. meal - onna - bun - type Hamburger, with Lettuce, Tomato and Bermuda Onion...which is served with French Fries, Cole Slaw and any beverage in the House. And she chatted gracefully while she ate. And she was charming over Cherry Pie ala mode. And she was so sweet as she handed me the bill and kissed me goodbye. And I said what THAT made me GLAD she'd recognized me. And she said "Uh-huh", and added, "G'bye Grandpa!"

New Romulus coach has high hopes

Hardy: 'our goal is 9-0'

By JIM FREER
Sports Writer

Romulus High's football team fell one game short of the .500 mark in each of the last two seasons and new head coach Bill Hardy is confident that the Eagles will push themselves past the break-even barrier in 1972.

Hardy, who served as Romulus' defensive coordinator in 1970 and '71, was recently chosen to replace George Pratt in the head coaching position.

Pratt held the job for five years and the 4-5 marks of the last two campaigns were the best during his tenure.

Hardy, a 27-year old alumnus of the University of Michigan, is familiar with the Romulus grid scene and he feels that only a few adjustments will be required to turn the Eagles into a winner.

"I think we have the material for a winning team," said Hardy, who is embarking on his first head coaching venture.

"We're going to try to communicate with the kids and make sure they're aware of what we want to accomplish," continued the new Eagle head man. "Our main goal is to win and we're going to be convinced that we can."

Hardy knows what winning football is all about.

He was an offensive tackle under coach Mike Haddad at Detroit's Pershing High School and upon graduation in 1963 he matriculated at the University of Michigan.

Bob Holloway, who is now the head coach of the St. Louis grid Cardinals, was the assistant coach who recruited Bill for the U. of M.

At Michigan, Hardy played three years of varsity football as a defensive tackle.

As a sophomore he was a member of the Bump Elliott-coached Wolverine team which defeated Oregon State in the 1965 Rose Bowl.

Hardy was a starter in his final two varsity seasons and after graduating in 1968 he spent a year teaching at an Ann Arbor junior high school.

Bill later earned a Master's degree in guidance and counseling at Eastern Michigan.

In addition to his coaching duties Hardy is a guidance counselor at Romulus High.

He resides in Ann Arbor with his wife, Carol, and two children, Vicki and Billy.

His coaching and playing experiences have oriented him toward defense, but he is able to look at football from the other perspective.

"I feel that a high school team should concentrate on building a sound, basic offense," said Hardy. "I plan to put in some intricate stuff, but you won't see us running the triple option. In high school you should look at your material, and then develop an offense and defense to fit the players that you have."

Hardy's material will include 18 lettermen.

Among the players he will be counting on most are Virgil Smith, a senior quarterback, and Daryl Gooden, a senior linebacker and offensive tackle.

"Virgil is the player who will make our offense go," said Hardy. "He has the physical ability, he's smart, and he's a good leader. He should play a big role in developing a feeling of pride and togetherness among our players."

Hardy called Gooden "a tremendous athlete who does everything well. Daryl leads the other kids by example and he'll be the key to our defense."

The new head coach is also hopeful that several seniors who did not play last season will return to the Romulus grid ship.

Hardy has already started to prepare for the '72 campaign.

Optional weightlifting and conditioning sessions are being held each day and there has been a good turnout.

The Romulus Board of Education will soon hire Hardy's assistants and the Eagles should be well prepared for the start of contact drills on Aug. 27.

"There's a lot that we plan to do and we're getting a lot of it out of the way in the sessions we're holding now," said Hardy. "The boys have all been enthusiastic and they're becoming familiar with a lot of the things I plan to have them do in the fall. When my assistants are named they'll be out meeting the players too, and by the time practice starts we should all know each other pretty well."

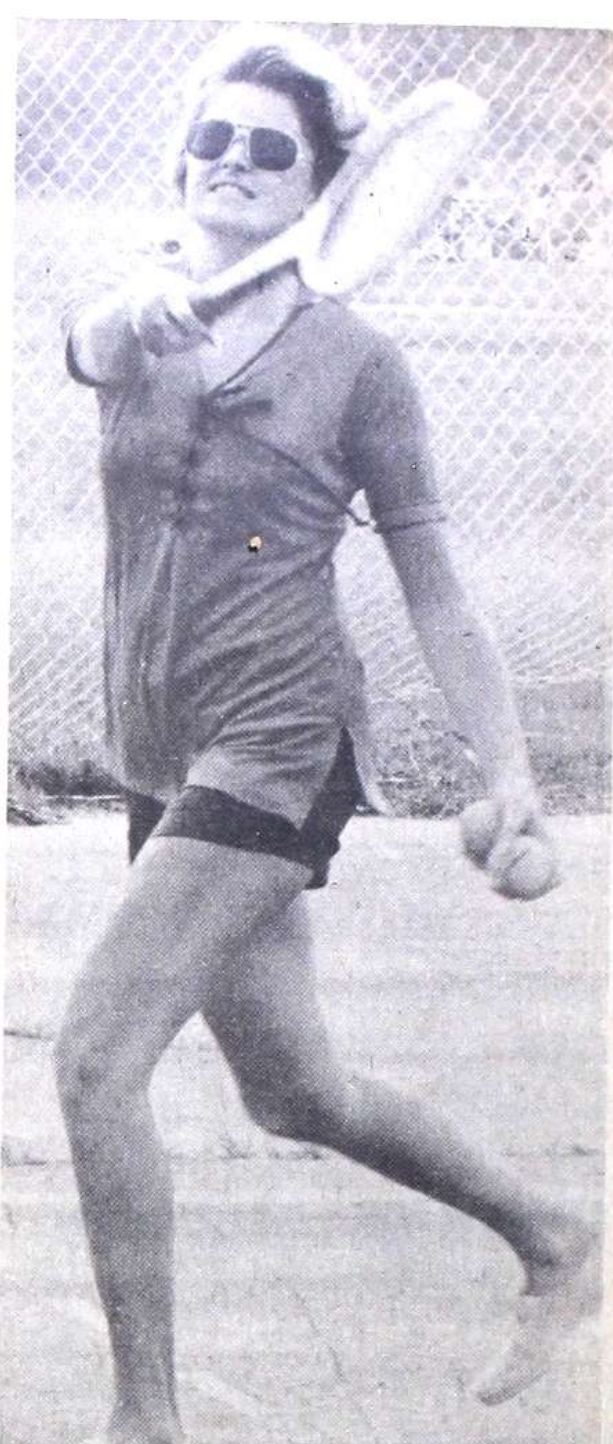

Two new opponents, Detroit Thurston and Muskegon Heights, have been added to the Romulus schedule and Hardy knows that his team will be facing a tough road.

But he's looking ahead to his "greatest challenge" with confidence.

"I believe in setting goals and trying to accomplish them," said Bill. "I expect us to go 9-0. Winning is what football is all about and winning will be our goal."

Hardy hopes to start winning when his Eagles open at Inkster on September 15.

The new Romulus coach is aiming high and it appears that he is ready to work hard as he attempts to achieve his goals.

PERFECT FORM — Displaying a smashing form for tennis ... or otherwise ... is Sandy Szemak who is one of a score that have enrolled in the Romulus Recreation Department's tennis clinic. The clinic is under the supervision of William Smith, the adult education director.

Hardy's biggest challenge

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Bill Hardy has been associated with football in one way or another for most of his 27 years.

As a defensive and offensive tackle for Coach Mike Haddad at Detroit Pershing.

BILL HARDY

A New Challenge

As a defensive tackle for Chalmers W. "Bump" Elliott at the University of Michigan where he played three years of varsity ball in the early sixties.

And now as head football coach at Romulus High School. Hardy replaced George Pratt last month and already has begun his new chores.

He views his present coaching job "as the most challenging."

"Our kids will be aware of what we're trying to accomplish," said Hardy. "We're going to win. And our main goal is a 9-0 season."

Undeclared in 1972? Is Hardy kidding? The best of the Pratt years produced two 4-5 won-lost seasons and no one in these parts can recall a Romulus football team going undefeated in modern times.

"If I didn't think we could do it, then I wouldn't accept this job. If I don't do positive things in two or three years I would definitely want out."

"That's the way life is," said Hardy. "If you want a raise from your boss you have to earn it. You have to prove your worth. And we're going to prove that Romulus can field winners in football."

Hardy pointed out that football is an excellent bridge "to bring the community together."

"I'm not saying that the community is divided now, but athletics is a means of bridging the young and the old, white and black, all of us together."

"During the basketball season Romulus nearly closes down to follow their team and with a winning football team we will close down the city from September to March."

Hardy, who served as assistant coach to Pratt, also coached at an Ann Arbor junior high school and worked with the boys at Whitmore Lake. He is presently a counselor at the high school having earned his masters in guidance and counseling at Eastern Michigan University.

Under the new state rules, Hardy and his future members of the team can get together for drills, but no contact allowed. And the new head coach isn't wasting any time.

"It's important for the kids to get to know each other so we can build understanding," said Hardy. "In high school you have to build with the material at hand and not hope for some miracle."

Married to Carol, the Hardys have two children - Vikki and Billy. They make their home in Ann Arbor.

Though the former Wolverine is only a few minutes away from U of M stadium, he isn't planning on attending many of the games this fall.

"I can't. We have a lot of work to do," he said.

"Would you do me a favor?" said the boy. "Will you take me to Garden City to watch grandfather play?"

Under ordinary circumstances the mother, in this case Mrs. Maureen Conser, would have pooh-poohed the request. Fly her son from Clearwater, Fla., to Garden City, Mich., to watch a softball game, indeed.

However, 13-year-old Mark's request isn't an ordinary one. It could be one of his last.

Mark is suffering from progressive muscular dystrophy and has been confined to a wheel chair for years. Even his fingers, which at one time were able to operate the electrically-run wheel-chair, are losing their strength.

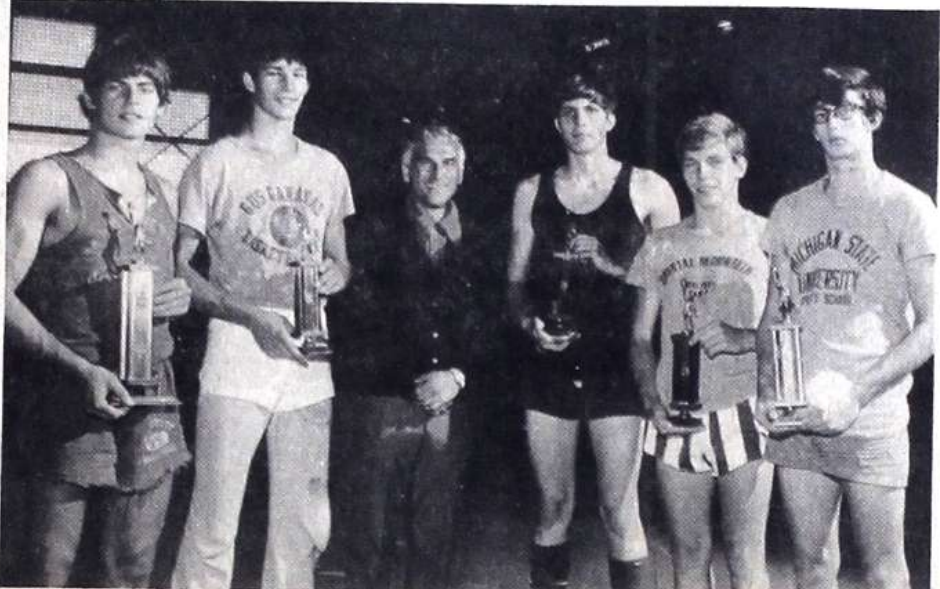

Grandfather, who's Jack O'Callaghan and quite a man in his own right, pitches for Acme Bookkeeping Bombers in the Garden City Parks and Recreation Softball League. He's a 65-year-old former semi pro player.

"The doctors didn't give Mark much time to live," said O'Callaghan. "In fact, they said he wouldn't live to see his 12th year. But he's nearly 13 now."

"When I heard he was coming up here to watch us play, I contacted Ray Wiecek (Garden City Parks and Recreation supervisor) and we planned a little surprise for my grandson."

O'Callaghan said that after the game with Burton Plumbing (which was to take place last night) the recreation department is to present Mark with a trophy upon which will be inscribed "Mark, No. 1 Sports Fan."

MIS to get another look at 'hot' Unser

DETROIT—When you're hot you're hot, and race driver Bobby Unser has more than the usual incentive to keep it that way when he comes to the Michigan International Speedway for the famed TWIN 200s auto races Sunday, July 16.

When Bobby Unser won the pole position for last year's 200-mile Indianapolis speedway car race at the two-mile Michigan oval, his 193.444 mph lap was an all time record for USAC racers.

Unser improved on that speed when he won the pole position last May for the Indianapolis 500, and he knows this year's M.I.S. qualifying will surely see another all-time speed record, perhaps over the 200 miles an hour mark.

When Bobby Unser rolls onto that smooth asphalt track in the Irish Hills, he will not only have the boss looking on but many dozens of his boss' friends and associates.

Unser drives the Olsonite Eagle, built and prepared by veteran Dan Gurney, but owned by Detroit's Oscar L. 'Ozzie' Olson, President of the Swedish Crucible Steel Co. and a leading sports figure in the Motor City for many years, a former stockholder of the Detroit Lions football team, among other sports interests.

Ozzie Olson is rightfully proud of the accomplishments of his Olsonite Eagles on the USAC Championship Trail the past few years, since his association with Dan Gurney.

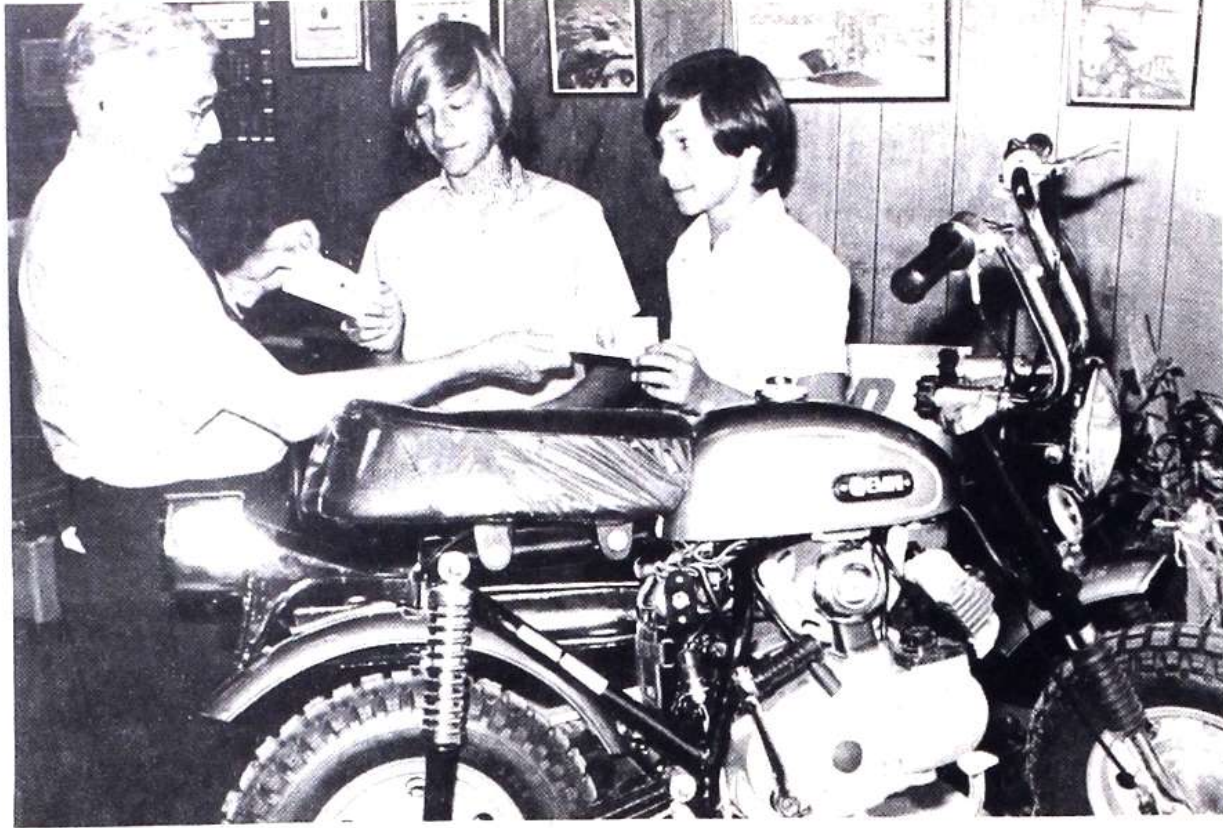

Sitting in the V.I.P. lounge high above the main grandstand at M.I.S. will be the friends of the boss and if the Olsonite Eagle performs as expected, Olson will accept the congratulations. If Bobby Unser doesn't score, then Olson can expect his friends to bring out the long needle.

When the Indy cars first raced at the Michigan track in the Irish Hills, Mario Andretti set the fastest qualifying time, at 183.67 miles an hour. Joe Leonard qualified the turbine car at Indianapolis that year at 171.953 mph.

Tickets for the July 16th Michigan Twin 200s at Michigan International Speedway are now on sale at The Daily Eagle offices, 34450 Michigan, Wayne. Call 729-4000.

DOLLARS FOR RECREATION — The newly established Van Buren Township citizens recreation committee isn't wasting any time trying to raise funds. The committee is sponsoring a raffle, with a Gemini 50 cc, SST mini-bike as the top prize, in order to collect funds to develop recreational facilities and organize programs in the community. One of the first purchasers of a raffle ticket is Henry R. Deering who picks up what hopefully is the lucky ticket from Steve Dziobak (at left) while he pays his dollar to John Dudlick.

Here's how to win mini-bike

Armed with the slogan, "It's for our kids," the newly established Citizens Recreation Committee comprised of Marj Lorentson, Larry Krantz, Peter Doyle, Bus Roberts and Ralph Hedman, has as its prime object to raising funds to build a combination skating and hockey rink in Belleville.

Although the committee was formed by William A. Loyd, director of Van Buren Township Parks and Recreation, it is not affiliated with the Township or the city of Belleville.

The committee is an independent group concerned with the community children and providing them with recreation.

The committee's first raffle will have a Gemini 50 cc, SST mini-bike which is called the "Cadillac of Mini-Bikes" as the top prize. The bike was obtained through the cooperation of Lynn Hamilton Hardware.

Raffle tickets can be obtained from several local citizens, businessmen, players of the local hockey association as well as from members of the committee.

"Do you know that Mark knows all the players in the National League and their averages. He just loves baseball, the poor little guy ..."

The words stuck.

O'Callaghan said Mark would also be accompanied by his sister, Michelle.

"In fact, if all of our grandchildren and children were in town, we would have some cheering section."

Jack and his wife, Alice, have seven children of their own, two step-children and 26 grandchildren.

The Consers are formerly of Garden City. They moved to Ann Arbor and later took up residence in California, then in Florida.

O'Callaghan grew up in the Flint area and pitched semi-pro baseball there. He has lived in Garden City for the past 35 years. There were also other O'Callaghans on the field last night. Terry, Mark's uncle, plays for the Bombers while Michael is a member of the Daly Drive Inn team.

"You know I've been around 65 years now and have seen a lot of things," said O'Callaghan, "but each day I pray that someone will come up with a cure for all of man's illnesses."

"Life is too short as it is and it shouldn't be spent worrying about incurable diseases."

Spearman's stays undefeated in Romulus slo-pitch

Morgan Manor moved into a tie for first place in the East by winning a pair during the week. Morgan rallied for five runs in the last of the 6th inning Tuesday to end Coughlin Air's nine game strak.

Trailing 9 to 7 Morgan pulled it out with their big sixth frame. Ross Holm drove in the tying run and Greg Brothers knocked in the winner. Dave Pichan singled home two insurance runs to cap the rally.

Greg Brothers, Ron Jones, Joe Kusibab and Ross Holm each had 3 hits to lead Morgan's 22 hit assault.

Morgan again used late inning heroics Thursday to pull out a 9 to 8 win over Walters Bar. With two out in the 7th winning pitcher Ray Muck singled in Greg Johnson with the tying run, Muck scored the winning run on Joe Kusibab's hit. Pete Molnar, Greg Johnson and Joe Kusibab each collected three hits, while Greg Brothers had a pair. Morgan's hit total was 17 while Ray Muck allowed Walters 14 hits.

Reel Realty extended Coughlin's losing streak to two Thursday with a 5 to 2 win. Chuck Hazen came on in relief and was tagged with the loss, his second of the week. Coughlin's double loss tightened up the Eastern race with three teams log jammed at the top, Morgan and Coughlin at 9 and 2 and Progressive a half game back at 8 and 2.

Baum's Funeral Home and Hal's Market swapped the lead several times and went nine innings where a two run homer by Baum's Pete Bergeron broke up the game. Hal's had grabbed the lead in the top of the ninth when Phil Mason double chased Roger Bird home.

The final count was Baum's 7 Hal's 6. John Walker had a three run homer for Baum's and Rober Bird had a solo blast for Hal's. Ivan Kinshella picked up the win.

Kinshella was on the mound again Thursday as Baum's moved past Romulus Hardware and Auto Supply 9 to 3. Alex McCraight had a three-run homer for Baum's.

Larry Mach hit his fourth homer of the year, a two run blast, to lead Walters Bar in a 17 to 7 romp over Cue Corners. Dick Marshal recorded the victory.

Carpentry by Woodcraft executed three double plays behind Jerry Kittle to defeat Kerr Mfg Co. 7 to 6 Tuesday.

And then there was one. Spearman's Fine Foods remain as the lone undefeated team in the Romulus loop. The Western leaders bested Reel Realty 4 to 2 on Tuesday, led by Wally Goeckel's solo homer. Then, on Thursday Spearman's rapped 23 singles and 2 doubles to win a hitter's battle 15 to 11 over Romulus Progressive Club.

Progressive supplied the long ball with home runs from Bill Rieber and Ken Meintkiewicz, triples from Ron Dick and Jim Halcomb, and a double from Hugh Miller in their 17 hit total.

Twitche had a perfect day at the plate for Spearman's with four singles and a double in five trips, scored twice and batted in five runs.

Darwin Wessel collected four hits in five appearances and scored four runs. Richard Kokila recorded his 11th win of the season while Bob Zygai absorbed his 2nd loss to bring his record to 4 and 2.

Progressive's second baseman John Sterling string of nine errorless games was ended as he was charged with an error for leaving second too soon on a force play in making his relay to first. Sterling had 48 chances in his nine game string.

Progressive Club defeated Romulus Press Repair 4 to 2 Tuesday when Bill Reiber homered with mate John Sterling aboard by way of a single in the sixth to break up a 2 to 2 tie.

Press Repair led twice in the early going, in the top of the first Rich Dibble's single chased Paul Finch home from second.

Progressive tied it in the bottom half of the frame when Fred Eberline singled Sterling home from third. Rich Godell drove Buddy Ward home from second in the fourth with a single to give Repair the lead again.

Progressive tied it in their half when Ken Meintkiewicz scored on Ron Dick's sacrifice fly. Bob Maronen picked up his fourth win of the season in the contest.

ON THE BRIDGE — Captain Morris Samuels (left) and Panax Corporation President John P. McGoff are shown on the bridge of the Panax ship named after McGoff. Captain

Samuels is a citizen of the Public of Honduras. This is his first trip into the Great Lakes, which he finds "very interesting and busy compared to sailing in the Caribbean."

Panax ship to transport own newsprint

EAST LANSING—Panax newspapers have acquired their own ocean-going ship to transport newsprint from a Canadian mill down the Great Lakes for their 23 newspapers in Michigan.

John P. McGoff, president of Panax, said the ship will haul 10,000 tons of newsprint this year from Thunder Bay, Ont., to lower Michigan ports this year.

"Under ideal conditions we'll be able to make five trips a month," he said. "In future years we'll be transporting on our own ship a greater portion of the 30,000 tons we need for our presses."

The 158-foot ship with a 29-foot beam was bought in March by Panax Shipping Ltd., a wholly-owned foreign subsidiary corporation of Panax. Mark T. McKee Jr. is general manager of the shipping firm.

The name of the ship, built in 1958 in Leer, Germany, for the Dutch coastal trade and converted into a package freighter for Caribbean markets in 1965, was changed from the Rotha Lynn to the John P. McGoff by the Panax board of directors.

It has a gross tonnage of 469.85 and a cargo capacity of 600 tons. It can make the 530-mile trip down from the Fort William mill of Abitibi Paper Co. in 60 hours.

The mill is at the lakehead of Lake Superior and the route southbound will be through the locks into Lake Huron and on to lower Michigan ports, principally Port Huron.

"Most of the tonnage we haul will be our own during the Great Lakes shipping season," McGoff said. "During the time the lakes are closed, the ship will work freight charters in the Caribbean."

The John P. McGoff arrived in Michigan for the first time June 23 with a call at Bay City with a cargo of binder twine for the Michigan Farm Bureau.

After unloading, the ship headed for Thunder Bay on its first pickup of newsprint for the presses of Panax.

The ship is under the command of Capt. Morris M. Samuels, 46, who has sailed the Caribbean for 39 years and who was given his first command 18 years ago.

His wife, Trudy, is making the first trips in Great Lakes waters aboard the ship. They have a home at Cape Canaveral, Fla., near Cocoa Beach.

"It's a nice ship," she said. "It rides the water well. But the Great Lakes can be rough. Even the Seaway pilot assigned to us was seasick."

The ship carries an all-Honduran crew of 10 in addition to Capt. Samuels.

Panax published seven daily newspapers 8 including the Daily Eagle—and 16 weeklies—including the Belleville Enterprise and Romulus Roman—in Michigan. The company also operates two large web-offset printing plants in Detroit and Mason and a printing machinery sales and distribution company in Kalamazoo.

The other newspapers are the Mining Journal, of Marquette; the Escanaba Daily Press, the Iron Mountain News, the Macomb Daily, Mount Clemens; the Alma Daily Record—Leader and the Mr. Pleasant Daily Times—News.

The other weekly newspapers are the Mellus Newspapers group and the News-Herald group in downriver Detroit.

The junior table tennis program will be held at the North Junior High School, while the adults will compete at Belleville High School.

For further details, call William A. Lloyd, director of the summer recreation program, at the township hall, 941-0434.

PANAX ACQUISITION—A new entry in the fleet of ships which sail the Great Lakes is the John P. McGoff. Named after the president of Panax Corporation, the ship is in primary trade between Thunder Bay, Ont., and various Michigan ports. Main cargo is newsprint for the Panax newspapers. The vessel, which sails under British registration (not flag), has George Town in the Cayman Islands as a home port. Plans call for the ship to transport cargo in the Caribbean during the winter months when the Great Lakes are closed to shipping.

Schoolcraft names Bogarin registrar

Russell S. Bogarin of Ypsilanti, director of financial aids and placement at Schoolcraft College for the past four years, has been appointed registrar.

President C. Nelson Grote announced the appointment at the June 28 Board of Trustees meeting.

Bogarin succeeds Norman

E. Dunn, who retired this year from the post he had held since the college was founded.

The registrar is responsible for conducting registration and for maintaining all official student records. He determines grade-point averages, evaluates credits for graduation and program completion, prepares official transcripts and conducts follow-up studies on those who transfer to senior colleges.

Bogarin entered the profession in 1956. He has been a counselor at Schoolcraft, Eastern Michigan University, the Lincoln Consolidated School in Ypsilanti, and was guidance director for the Van Buren Public Schools.

Teacher 'on her own' in classroom assault

To the editor:

The Romulus Education Association (REA) is providing legal and financial aid to a system teacher who was allegedly assaulted by a parent.

Slowly emerging from the depths of our education bureaucracy are facts and opinions surrounding the alleged assault on a kindergarten teacher by a parent in one of the Romulus elementary schools.

The alleged assault occurred June 14, two days before school was dismissed for the summer. Apparently, administrative officials of the school system overlooked the incident, hoping the air would clear during summer dismissal.

The alleged assault took place in front of a class of kindergarten students by the parent who walked into the class, grabbed the teacher by the throat, leaving visible hand marks, and threatened her. When reported to the administration that day, the teacher was advised to wait for an opinion from the superintendent's office concerning what legal action could be taken. Friday the administration told the teacher that she was "on her own" in seeking legal recourse for the alleged attack.

The parent was assured by school officials that no action would be taken against her by the school system.

Saturday the teacher filed a police report and posted bond in the 34th District Court.

The REA deprecates those board policies which leave its membership open to uncontested attacks. A "fit of rage" is not just cause for assaulting a teacher in front of 30 impressionable five-year-old kindergarten students.

The REA will support teachers who are attacked. It is unfortunate that this is being done by the REA instead of system administrative members, who will not accept the responsibility for attacks on their employees.

Gun owners are tired of getting all flack

To the editor:

I feel safe in saying we gun owners are getting sick and tired of flack coming our way since the attempt on Governor Wallace's life. Every time some unbalanced person commits a crime with a gun, the sportsman is made to look as if he was responsible.

Let's really take a look at what gun control laws have done so far. States with strict gun laws have a somewhat higher crime rate than states with more lenient laws.

The statement is made that murders are committed by people who have been in trouble, the facts are that 80 per cent of arrests for homicides are of people with records of crimes and violence. It's claimed that ownership of a handgun is no protection against a criminal, yet a considerable percentage of the homicides in Detroit, for example, were justifiable.

Licensing and registration of firearms will help solve crimes and prevent criminals from obtaining guns. In the past 10 years, six crimes have been solved in the entire United States by licensing and registration. Most states do have some form of registration.

There is only one conclusion: The responsible citizen obeys the law, the criminal could care less. They steal their guns.

We gun owners don't want to carry our handguns to work or when we go out in the evening, we don't want to escort our children to school with a rifle or shotgun. What we do insist on is being able to transport them to a target range or hunting area without being harassed at every step.

We insist on being able to buy ammunition and reloading components without having to fill out a form that conflicts with our constitutional rights.

We insist on the right to own a handgun for sport as well as protection. We insist that the federal and state government begin to listen to us and realize we have the same rights under the constitution as every other citizen.

I've had it from these groups who know nothing about firearms except to bleat, "Guns are made to kill" or "if the deer could shoot back, you wouldn't be so brave."

Are the anti-gun, anti-hunting groups ready to pay the bill for conservation in this country? We have paid it all so far without their help.

These same groups are for abolishing jails as criminal punishment, yet their goal is to disarm America. If you don't turn in your gun, you go to jail for 10 years and get a $10,000 fine. Their ambivalence amazes me.

The argument is given that the second Amendment is outdated. How can this be? It was written at the same time as the others.

Since it appears we are in for another round of attempts to downgrade the Second Amendment, let's get the record straight. No more compromises from those of us who own firearms.

I can only say in closing, "The anti-gun groups may not like us, but they sure as hell have to live with us."

Liquor license OK'd for lounge

The issuance of a Class C Liquor license to Louis A. Toth of 44119 Harmony Lane by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission has been approved and recommended by the Van Buren Township Board.

Toth, former Van Buren Township supervisor, proposes to construct cocktail lounge and restaurant on the southwest corner of Denton Road and the south service drive of the I-94 Expressway.

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has allotted the township three new Class C liquor licenses due to population increase in the township as reflected in 1970 in the U.S. census.

Plans and architectural drawings of the "Mr. T's" cocktail lounge and restaurant have been approved, by the building department and to the township board.

A petition to rezone the proposed 5.36-acre site from residential to commercial is before the township planning commission.

Six bids received

Six bids have been received by the Romulus City Council for the installation of a multi-purpose court in Romulus' Kennedy Park.

This proposals, opened at last week's city council session, ranged from a low of $5,986.76 to a high of $13,121.37.

The R.C. Burnstead Asphalt Paving of 2145 Hannan Rd., Westland, submitted the low bid of $5,986.76.

The council deferred formal action on awarding the contract pending a report from the city's recreation department and city engineer on the type of prior work by the firm, which submitted the low bid.

The contract, when awarded, will call for 1,667 square yards with one-inch asphalt base 31, a surface course and 500 lineal feet of asphaltic curb.

Hauling junk cars poses road hazard

Van Buren Township Police Commissioner Dominick W. Blend, who also is a member of the township board, has been asked by the board to investigate reported problems involving trucks transporting dismantled vehicles to and from Huron Valley Steel Corp. on Huron River Drive.

Building Inspector Darryl Robson reported that trucks carrying the dismantled vehicles do not secure the vehicles properly and the trucks loaded with fill are not covered as required by law.

He reported that vehicles are dragged on bare wheels ruining pavement. Glass reportedly falls to the road on every bump, while parts and debris fall onto the road and cars also fall off the trucks.

"Not only is the condition very hazardous, but the litter creates a very unsightly condition," he said.

"I have personally stopped these trucks to warn them of the violations, but they continue. Perhaps if they were ticketed several times, the situation would cease," Robson added.

He requested the township board to suggest a solution to this "hazardous and unsightly problem."

Organizational meeting set

The organizational meeting of the Huron School District Board of Education will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff announced.

The meeting will be held in the Hannan Road Elementary School, 18955 Hannan Road, New Boston.

Post lamp guides visitors

If guests grope and stumble up to the front door, they may be wondering if the visit is worth the trouble. It's better to provide a yard lamp, easily constructed of western woods.

Extending hospitality further, house numbers on the narrow two-foot high faces of a series of 2x4s set in the ground adjacent to the post lamp will make it easier for visitors to find the right house.

Plans for a post lamp and other outdoor projects are available for 15 cents in coin from The Daily Eagle, 35540 W. Michigan Ave., Wayne, Mich., 48184, in care of the Home Improvements Editor.

What's new on the market?

THE PRODUCT — A 7 1/4-inch circular saw with a series of safety features.

The manufacturer's claim—That the saw has double-insulated construction and incorporates an on-off switch button that must be pressed before the trigger can be pulled, making accidental starts almost impossible ... that a blade guard lift lever is located between the handle and the upper blade guard so that it is not necessary to reach across the front of the saw to lift the guard when making pocket cuts ... that a guard stop prevents the blade guard from being elevated too high and exposing an excessive amount of blade ... and that the 2 1/2-horsepower motor is designed to withstand frequent overloads caused by continuous cutting.

THE PRODUCT — Shutters made of rigid vinyl bonded to a preservative-treated wood subframe.

The manufacturer's claim—that the shutters require no painting ... that they are 1 1/8 inches thick, allowing authentic detailing of rails, stiles, panes and louvers ... that a simulated wood grain formed in vinyl adds to a realistic appearance and texture ... that the shutters come in 14 and 18-inch widths, in 10 height sizes ranging from 35 to 75 inches, plus 80 inches for exterior doors ... that they are available in panel or louver styles in white vinyl or factory-applied black acrylic ... and that predrilled black hinges permit fast, easy installation.

THE PRODUCT — A twin-head orbital-action polisher-sander.

The manufacturer's claim—That the one-third horsepower machine closely approximates hand sanding but is 250 times faster ... that the twin heads counter balance, giving a completely stable operation ... that the machine sands, fills, feathers, finishes and polishes metals and paints ... that it weighs only 8 pounds because the handle, motor housing and other exterior parts are made of finished cast aluminum.

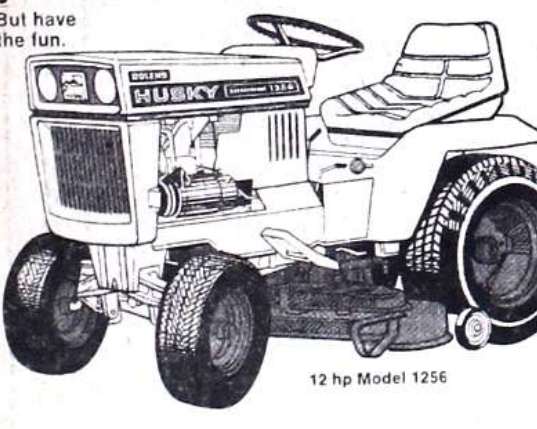

Planning quartet renamed

Four members of the city's nine-member City Planning Commission have been reappointed by Belleville City Council. The reappointments were recommended by Mayor Royce E. Smith.

The four Belleville residents, who will serve new two-year terms, are Mrs. Helen Beasecker, Joseph Moon, Theodore G. Hooten and Virgil Lockrow.

(The circular saw is manufactured by J. C. Penney, 1301 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N.Y. 10019; the shutters by Andersen Corp., Bayport, Minn. 55003; and the polisher-sander by Cyclo Manufacturing Co., 3816 Dahlia St., Denver, Colo. 80201.)

The city council also reappointed Samuel Morris and Robert Baker, both of Belleville, to the city's electrical board, which has the authority to revoke the license of electrical contractors operating within the city limits.

Don't let someone else pick hammer

Don't send your wife or your husband or your son or your friend to buy a hammer for you.

It might sound far out, but a hammer is an individual thing which should "fit" the user. In choosing a hammer, grasp it firmly near the end of the handle and move it around a little. It should feel comfortable. If it doesn't, try others—of different sizes and shapes—until you find one that seems made to order just for you. True, you can use almost any hammer and probably get good results, but using one that suits you will reduce arm fatigue.

Banged fingers, bent nails and marred surfaces make it evident that using a hammer properly isn't the simple task it seems to be. For one thing, a hammer should be held down at the end of the handle without any of your hand overhanging. The weight of the hammer head is then free to move by the force of gravity as you swing the handle.

Rest the face of the hammer on the nail, draw the hammer back and give a light tap to start the nail and to determine the aim. Strike the nail squarely as you hold it in place with the thumb and first two fingers of one hand. Besides getting you started properly, this first light tap prevents any serious damage to your hand should you fail to hit the target.

Hammer blows are struck with the wrist, the elbow and the shoulder. For light taps, use only the wrist. For moderate blows, use the wrist and the elbow. For heavy whacks, use the wrist, elbow and the shoulder.

Should a nail bend while hammering it, you are much better off to withdraw it and start a new one than to attempt to straighten it with compensating blows. In very rough work, however, striking it at a slant to straighten it out is all right. Hitting it straight on or at a slant, always strike the nail with the center of the hammer face.

In withdrawing a nail, slip the claw of the hammer under the nail head and pull the handle toward you. Do not draw it past a vertical position. If the nail proves stubborn, place a piece of wood under the head of the hammer to increase the leverage and relieve unnecessary strain on the handle.

When a nail is to be driven below the surface, use a nail set for the last two or three blows. Nail sets are inexpensive, so keep two or three different sizes in your workshop to take care of nail heads of different diameters.

IMPROVE YOUR HOME

Homeowners can learn how to foil burglars

Playing cops and robbers is not a game with big city police these days. They are using a plan that makes it harder for house burglars to do their thing with finesse. This vacation season should be a good test for householders.

A success in Monterey Park, Calif., where the plan—Operation Identification—began in 1963, it is operating in 75 other cities, and was just adopted by Connecticut for 85 towns under state police jurisdiction. The householder's protection lies in marking his possessions with an engraving tool, listing his valuables and wearing a sticker on his house or apartment.

In Connecticut, information on losses and identifying number—a driver's license number—is teletyped to the National Crime Information Center in Washington D.C., an FBI-operated computer center into which state and local police agencies are tied. In larger cities, such as New York, where the plan is now being formulated, Social Security or other numbers might be used.

With the number etched on possessions—silver, fishing rods, bicycles, stereos, television—police can trace owners within minutes, and while the idea is not foolproof—some robbers may re-etch numbers—it will certainly give a robber a new slant on his taking ways and make a fence think twice.

Even in areas where such a program has not begun, householders might mark items of value. In the event of their loss, one can turn the number over to the police.

Etching tools have needle-like points and are handled like pencils. In marking items, care should be taken to mark certain numbers—3, 6, 9—so they can not easily be turned into eights. In Connecticut, engraving kits are being loaned by police, and elsewhere they may be rented. When the tool is returned, a sticker can fill out a form listing valuables and turn it over to the police where it will be kept in a confidential file. Or a wife may prefer to keep the list at a bank at her husband's office.

A sticker states that all goods of value are registered with law enforcement agencies. Police feel it is a great deterrent, if placed where it can be seen outdoors or on an apartment door.

The plan may also result in insurance premium reductions. One company, The Hartford, has just announced a 10 per cent reduction on homeowner's policies for those policyholders meeting requirements of Connecticut's state police program.

progress. Of the 4,000 homes in the plan, only six have been burglarized whereas 1,800 of the 7,000 not protected have been broken into.

These days the loot "is anything that can be sold," says Sgt. Robert Rasmussen of the Hartford, Conn., State Police. Favored items are stereos, cameras, watches, jewelry, silverware.

It is comforting to know that stolen possessions might be returned, but heirlooms and other articles of sentimental value that cannot be replaced might be stashed in a safe place after they are number etched. Bank vaults are safe places for jewelry and documents; relatives might store silver; neighbors might be persuaded to hold your prize paintings while you are away.

In foiling vacation robberies, avoid calling attention to vacation plans. If it must be, a car should be serviced at the local garage before it is packed to the hilt with suitcases. And if one owns a house, one shouldn't suddenly change the environmental pattern from shaggy cluttered to neat stylish.

Even with the best-laid plans a disconnected telephone is often a thief's tipoff. Many thieves check telephones day and night for days before they visit your house. An answering service might provide some protection with a noncommittal, "hello," giving the impression someone is at home.

You can stash away heirlooms, your identifiable possessions and police-label your door or window, but a frustrated thief may feel obliged to take a little something "so it shouldn't be a total loss." One family obliges would-be burglars by scattering about clothing that has been earmarked for charity, and putting in full view, bulky items they are trying to unload anyway—an old typewriter, television, radio. It may just deter a burglar from carting off your porcelain vase.

Dear Al:

I like to have a small sanding strip right on top of my workbench. It's a real convenience to be able to reach over and smooth edges, remove burrs and the like by just rubbing the work over a flat sanding surface. I cut two slits in the edge of the bench top. They are positioned to accommodate a sanding belt. The slits are at a slight angle to prevent the belt from sliding while being used. A wedge is placed between the belt and the bottom of the bench so the belt is sure to stay in place. When I want the belt moved to provide a new surface, I pull out the wedge and rotate.

Dear Al:

Remember the old curling irons women used to use on their hair? I found one in the attic and find it is an excellent sanding tool for getting inside scroll work and other small curves. The abrasive is wrapped around the end and held there by the clamp that used to put the kink in hair.

Dear Al:

That heat shrink tape you mentioned gave me a great idea for an additional use. The frayed ends of rope can be bound tight and then made permanent when the heat shrinks the tape. I have become the hit of the boat club by doing this to every line (rope) around the place.

Some trees need shade to survive

Several valuable species of softwood trees, such as Douglas fir and lodgepole pine, grow only in open spaces and became dominant centuries ago in parts of the west after devastating fires.

That's why proper forest management calls for harvesting these trees in a block, clearing an opening for replanting seedlings of the shade-intolerant species.

The mature wood is harvested for use by man, rather than allowing nature to clear it wastefully by fire, disease, windstorm or insects.

Quick answers for harried handymen: To R.E.W. — The difference between the half-priced bottle cutting rigs and the real ones is that the cheapies are designed to cut lightweight, no-return bottles. The others are for heavier glass, too. Depends on what you want to do with this popular hobby. To J.Y. — The old-style deck paint of the oil base variety is actually more resistant to wear than the newer latex type. However, for use on your concrete patio, the moisture from the slab can have a bad effect on the oil-based enamel. To Mrs. T.E.A. — Wrong!

Quarterly report issued

A total of 145 complaints have been received and investigated by the Romulus police chief, according to a quarterly report.

The report, presented to the Romulus City Council last week, showed the police chief's code enforcement detail involved 84 inoperable motor vehicle investigations, and 56 unkept premises complaints.

Warnings were issued on 57 complaints investigated and in 30 other ordinance violations, compliance to city codes, was obtained by the city.

In the investigation of 37 businesses seeking licenses, the police chief reported tickets were issued in 15 cases.

Twenty-five complaints received by Chief Koch were referred to various county enforcement agencies.

Helping Hand shop needs aid

Romulus' Helping Hand Thrift Shop, a volunteer-operated shop directed by Mrs. Florence Kline of Romulus may be forced to close its doors if financial assistance is not received from members of the community or elsewhere.

The shop is located in the basement quarters of the old Cory Elementary School building, now the Special Services Building of the Romulus Community School District at 7335 Washington St. Romulus. The quarters are donated by the school district.

Mrs. Kline, who has been directing the thrift shop operations for the last six years without any salary compensation, recently appealed to the Romulus City Council for assistance.

Many volunteers have assisted in keeping the thrift shop in operation during the last few years.

The shop's activities according to Mrs. Kline, have grown tremendously in the last two years by increases in case loads, in referrals from other agencies (ADC) and welfare agencies, and from citizens of the city that the shop can not continue without financial assistance.

Donations of clothing, food, toys and other useful items made by various organizations in Romulus and adjacent communities have been distributed to many needy families, individual adults and children under

Mrs. Kline's direction.

The duties at the thrift shop are now taking most of her time, Mrs. Kline reported, she would not be able to continue, although she enjoys the work and wants to, without some sort of financial arrangement for herself and the operation of the shop.

Non-residency law effective Aug. 1

The Romulus City Council has directed Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael to notify all city employees affected by the city's residency ordinance that the deadline for required city residency is Aug. 1.

Monday that about 10 employees would be dismissed if they do not comply with the provisions of the ordinance. These employees are scattered throughout various city departments, she said.

The residency ordinance was adopted by the city council in August, 1970 and allowed one year for the employees who were then not residents of the city to reside in the city or lose of their positions in city offices.

Councilman Edmund W. Bizak entered the motion to have the mayor alert the employees. He was supported by Councilman Brooker R. Edwards.

Mrs. Deanna Lovenduski, deputy city clerk, reported

The motion was unanimously approved by the city council.

How Good Comes Before How Big.

Sony is proud to announce a giant step backwards. Having started with a modest 19- and 9-inch diagonal screen—having progressed to a sizeable 17—Sony now adds a fourth size. Not a super giant, but a nice, medium, comfortable 15. Still 100% solid state, instant "on" picture, and one-button automatic color and fine tuning. Also a brand new UHF tuner that homes straight in on each UHF channel with a definite click of the dial. But most importantly, compare the picture with any other.

Benefit horse show set for 'Santa' Gribble

Various 4-H members, parents, leaders and friends are busy planning a 'Christmas in July' benefit horse show for Eugene (Santa) Gribble.

Gribble 13560 Ashton Dr., Romulus, who recently has become ill, is popular to both young and old in his many activities as "Santa" for the local area.

He was a most favorite donut maker at the 4-H fair, especially to a few who would ask and receive his mistakes, donuts broken, donut holes, etc.

The "Christmas In July" benefit horse show will be held Sunday, July 23, at 8:30 a.m. (rain or shine).

Judge for the day's events will be Jack Swartz of South Lyon. General Chairman of the horse show is Don Curry. He is also in charge of all funds which will help to pay the evermounting medical expenses.

Mrs. Helen Curry and Mrs. Connee Morris both of the Belleville Galloping Comedians 4-H Club, are co-chairmen.

The two announcers for the day will be Mel Wood of the Mustangs' 4-H Club and Chris Fischer of the Thunderbird 4-H Club. Ringmasters will be Don Morris and Larry Morris, both of Romulus.

Mrs. Jacquie Renier and members of the Mustangs' 4-H Club will be in charge of the presentation of trophies and ribbons. Miss Jan Fischer, Mrs. Rosemary Fischer, and Mrs. Jacquie Renier are in charge of the souvenir programs and show flyers.

Mrs. Fischer and her committee — consisting of Mrs. Mary Wood, Mrs. Bonnie Neely, (both of the Mustangs), Mrs. Bonnie Berg (Plymouth Bridle 4-H) and Mrs. Ella Cappuccio (Maverick's) — will be in charge of the entry booth.

Handling gate sales will be the leaders Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hay and their 4-H members, known as the Romulus Western Riders.

Many other leaders and 4-H members are busy contacting donors and sponsors to help make this show a success.

The 4-H Service Club will handle the food concession, therefore needing donors regarding refreshments.

"Santa" Gribble's Gingerbread House can be seen at the fairgrounds during the horse show, complete with Christmas wreath and decorated Christmas tree.

All local 4-H clubs will be contacted as soon as their telephone numbers or addresses are obtained. If you are not contacted but would like to help, please contact one of the following persons:

Mr. or Mrs. Don Curry (Belleville), 697-7407; Mr. or Mrs. Chris Fischer (Romulus), 941-0067; Mrs. Connee Morris (Romulus), 941-2838; Mrs. Ella Cappuccio (Romulus), 941-2573; and Mrs. Jacquie Renier (Belleville), 697-7409.

The schedule of events at the horse show will be published next week.

Census statistics show

90% of housing units have TV sets

More than 90 per cent of the homes in Wayne County have television sets, according to statistics recently released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

Of the more than 870,000 housing units in Wayne County, 802,000 boast at least one television set. Of the television sets, some 561,000 are equipped with UHF channel selectors.

Twenty-four per cent of the house owners in Wayne County own air conditioning units. There are more than 213,000 units in the county, 177,000 room units and 36,000 central systems.

In addition, 76 per cent of the householders in the county boast some sort of a clothes washing machine. Fifty per cent of the homeowners also own a clothes dryer and 13 per cent own a dishwasher.

Sixty-eight per cent of the housing units were built before the 50s, 21 per cent were built before the 60s, and 11 per cent were built before the April, 1970 census.

Of the existing housing units, 67 per cent use gas to cook, 30 per cent use electricity, and the remaining three per cent use either bottled, tanked or LP gas.

Ninety-eight per cent of all the housing units have complete kitchen facilities, while approximately the same number have complete bathroom facilities.

Surprisingly, three per cent, or 25,079, of all the housing units had no bedrooms, while 13 per cent had one bedroom and 11 per cent had more than three bedrooms.

Renters occupied 31 per cent of the units, while owners occupied 64 per cent of the units. The remaining units were unoccupied for more than a year, with 6,300 for sale and 24,000 for rent.

Most importantly, there were 3.2 persons occupying each housing unit in the county, on the average.

All the statistics were compiled during the 1970 Census of Housing in Michigan. Copies are available from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Department of Commerce field offices located in the Federal Building in Detroit also carry copies of the report.

Gremore's attorney fee turned down by PCHA

A request for payment of a $15,000 lawyer's bill from ousted executive director Kenneth Gremore will not be paid by the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA).

The board last night voted unanimously not to pick up the tab which was submitted to the authority in a letter dated June 21.

Donald J. Pizzimenti, board chairman, said the first letter he received stated the board should pay $17,000 for out-of-pocket legal expenses incurring during his tenure as PCHA executive director. Gremore was fired for alleged mismanagement of funds during a scandal which erupted about six years ago.

According to B. Ward Smith, board legal counsel, the authority is not allowed to pay legal fees in defense of criminal action.

In two civil suits included in the bill's itemized breakdown, one was in a suit brought about by the state attorney general while Gremore was not employed by the PCHA. The other was when the former executive director sued the authority for breach of contract.

Smith said he felt there was "no legal basis for paying the fees."

In other action, the Rev. R.R. Rives, Garden City representative who sat in on his last PCHA meeting, announced the authority had the acceptance of a clergyman to act as full-time chaplain.

Rev. Rives, who retired from the pulpit of his church two months ago, has served on the board for more than 11 years.

PCHA renews contracts for top hospital officials

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) has renewed contracts for its four hospital administrators, purchasing director and director of rehabilitation medicine.

The PCHA Board of Directors last week approved a three-year contract for Dr. Frederick B. House, director of rehabilitation medicine, for $49,200, a $1,200 increase over last year.

The contract's salary may be renegotiated each year, and either party may terminate it with 120 days notice.

Dr. House has offices in all four PCHA facilities.

Contracts were also approved for Walter S. Wheeler, Annapolis Hospital administrator, Duane E. Johnson, chief at Outer Drive, Joseph T. Melling, Seaway administrator, and Alan R. Case, administrator at Beyer Memorial.

Wheeler and Johnson will receive $30,880 per year, while Melling and Case will get $24,980, increases of $1,080 for all four administrators.

James E. Lester, purchasing director for the hospital, was also granted a $1,080 salary hike, bringing it to $22,580.

Higher homestead exemptions urged

A resolution calling for increased Michigan Homestead Tax Exemption benefits for senior citizens, veterans and widows has been unanimously approved by the Romulus City Council.

Councilman James C. Stewart requested the city council adopt such a resolution. He was supported by Councilman Edmund W. Bizek and the council agreed.

The resolution points out that Michigan state legislature has passed public acts providing for tax exemption for senior citizens, certain veterans and widows. It adds that the forces of inflation have eroded their effect drastically.

The city council, in its resolution, requests that the state legislature increase the property limitation from $10,000 to $15,000 on the state equalization valuation (SEV) to qualify for exemption by veterans and widows.

The resolution also requests the state legislature to increase the senior citizens, veterans and widows Homestead Tax Exemption from $2,500 assessed valuation to $7,500.

The city council directed that a copy of the resolution be sent to Gov. William G. Milliken, State Sen. William Faust, State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak, the chairman of the Senate and House taxation committee, and all municipalities of Wayne County.

Ask Senator Griffin

Capitol tours free, thanks to Congress

By U.S. SEN. ROBERT P. GRIFFIN

Question: When I brought my family to Washington a few years ago we enjoyed visiting the landmarks but we were disappointed that we had to pay a fee when we toured the U.S. Capitol building. My sister and her family plan to visit Washington next month. I just want you to know that I don't think Americans should have to pay to see their government. It's our government too!

—D.B., Sault Ste. Marie
Answer: It took an act of Congress in 1971 to do it — but you will be pleased to know that guided tours of the U.S. Capitol are available now without charge. The tours

EDITOR'S NOTE — Senator Robert Griffin will answer questions of general interest through columns in The Daily Eagle. He will answer personally all correspondence addressed to: Sen. Robert P. Griffin, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510 form in the Capitol Rotunda every 3-5 minutes from 9 a.m. until 3:45 p.m. I hope your sister and her family enjoy their trip to Washington. Please suggest that they visit my office in the Senate Office Building once they arrive.

Question: My husband and I have been trying to adopt a Vietnamese orphan since last August. At first we were helped by an army chaplain, but now the case is bogged down in the Vietnamese bureaucracy. We have received little help from the government agencies we turned to. Can you help us?
D.H., Detroit

Answer: In April, I introduced a bill in the Senate entitled the "Vietnamese Orphan Act" which would make it easier for American citizens to adopt Vietnamese children who have been orphaned as a result of the war in Southeast Asia. If passed by Congress, the bill would cut through a lot of the red tape and bureaucratic obstacles you have encountered. The bill is now pending before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and you could help get action by writing to the Chairman, Senator J. William Fulbright, Washington, D.C.

Question: My husband and I have been appalled by pictures on the television and in the newspapers showing the needless and brutal slaughter of seals, whales and porpoises. What are you and your fellow Congressmen doing to stop this inhumane practice?
—D.S., East Lansing

Answer: The Senate Commerce Committee is now considering S. 2871, a bill which I cosponsored entitled the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972. The bill would immediately impose a 10-year moratorium on the killing of ocean mammals. At the end of the moratorium period, the Secretary of the Interior would have authority to regulate the taking of these animals in a humane manner. For decades men of all nationalities have cruelly misused ocean wildlife. I am very hopeful that this legislation will be enacted this year.

Question: We are firemen at Willow Run Airport and we are not covered under Social Security. Yet Social Security taxes have been taken out of our pay checks every month. We contacted the Social Security office and complained, but we are still being docked. Can you do anything?
—J.F., Ann Arbor

Answer: You and your fellow firemen will soon receive checks refunding the Social Security taxes erroneously withheld. Firemen are not covered by Social Security, as you pointed out. Unfortunately, because the Willow Run Airport is administered by the University of Michigan, there was a mix up and you were being treated like other University of Michigan employees. If you have any more difficulty, get in touch with me.

Question: I understand the Federal government publishes material on the preparation and storage of foods. How can I obtain this information?
—J.G., Marquette

Answer: Write to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, and ask for a list of available government publications on the preparation of foods. The list and order forms will come to you free of charge.

WHOSE HORSE IS THIS? — Wayne Animal Warden Heli Malkowski holds the reins on a Shetland pony that was found roaming around the city last week. The two-year-old stud was captured by police on Howe Road near Van Born, and will be kept until claimed by its owner or bought. The pony is being quartered at a stable in Westland, owned by Walter Thompson.

Found near Van Born

Pony looking for lost owners

The Wayne Police Department has a "horse with no name."

No, it's not the popular contemporary record, but a real, breathing, eating horse — or, more accurately, a two-year-old Shetland pony.

The police, who aren't really known for their cowboy-type talents, captured the pony last Tuesday when an anonymous caller informed them the animal was running loose along Howe Road near Van Born at the city's southern limits.

Patrolman Lenny Anderson and Pete Nelson were dispatched to the area and managed to chase and "corral" the horse in a nearby garage and hold it for Animal Warden Heli Malkowski.

Malkowski then took the pony to the dog pound, put it in a large pen and fed and watered it. Then the problem developed.

Although the pound is a fairly large area, it still isn't big enough to house large animals, and a horse certainly fits into that classification.

Malkowski soon realized that unless the horse was claimed, he'd have to find another place to quarter it.

After holding the pony for four days, Malkowski finally found an area large enough to keep it.

The dark-brown stud with the white blaze on its forehead is now roaming about the grounds of Walter Thompson's home in Westland.

Thompson, who has a small stable at his home on Marquette, picked up the horse Saturday, and will keep it until it is claimed or bought.

"I've done this before," Thompson said. "I often keep large animals at my home when the Humane Society or a police department asks me to," he said.

"I guess I'll keep this one until somebody comes for it."

Waste wins one

The Belleville American Waste team dropped two of its three weekend games in the Connie Mack League.

American Waste bowed to Model Cities of Ann Arbor, 5-4, on Saturday and then split a Sunday doubleheader with Milan.

Milan captured the first game, 12-3, but American Waste came back to win the nightcap, 8-3.

Tom Reeves' home run in the bottom of the seventh inning gave Model Cities its narrow victory over American Waste.

Steve Theodore had two singles for the Belleville team.

The American Waste pitchers gave up only five hits in the opening game with Milan. But they also walked nine batters.

Doug Raymond, with a triple and single, and Kevin Bara, with a double and single, were the top hitters for American Waste in the losing cause.

American Waste pulled out its second game triumph with a five-run rally in the top of the seventh inning.

The teams were tied at 3-3 going into the final frame.

Gary Van Buhler singled in what proved to be the winning run.

Kevin Bara picked up the win in relief.

The weekend results left American Waste with a 4-5 record.

Girl Scouts move to new quarters

The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council will move from its offices of the last 10 years, located at 310 S. Huron St., to larger quarters at 19 N. Hamilton St., Ypsilanti, formerly the Conger-Bush Funeral Home.

The brick and frame building will more than double the office space and triple the parking space of the present building and provide important new facilities for volunteers and staff.

The move was originally recommended by a Long Range Planning Committee under the chairmanship of Wyeth Allen of Ann Arbor, which projected aims and needs of the council through 1970.

The 1970 report showed that the number of Girl Scouts in the council's area — Washtenaw, Livingston, western Wayne, and northern Monroe counties — will grow from 11,000 in 1970 to 16,000 in 1980.

An open house is planned for September.

Current enrollment is 12,500. The present office was purchased when total enrollment was less than 6,000.

On the basis of this report, a request for assistance was made to the Kresge Foundation in Detroit. Their response was a challenge grant of $50,000, pledged last year with the understanding that the council raise the rest of the money needed within a year. This was done through a few additional gifts and sale of property to Consumers Power Company and sale of the old office building. No operating funds were used.

In the new building, the 6,600 square feet of floor space will be divided into four units, administrative offices, field directors section, meeting rooms and a troop supplies and mailing room. The 66 by 66 foot parking lot will accommodate 20 cars.

Girl Scouts' camp still has vacancies

Camp Linden, the 400-acre resident camp operated by the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, opened last Wednesday with a full enrollment of 160 Girl Scouts from throughout Washtenaw, Livingston, western Wayne and northern Monroe counties.

The girls are the first to use the $150,000 Hunter Lodge, the dining hall and recreation building, completed just in time for the opening session. They will also be the first to take hay rides trips to overnight camp sites.

In another innovation, Junior Girl Scouts, ages 10 to 12, this year will take back pack overnights. In these exercises, girls carry their food, water, tents and other equipment to a remote area of the camp and stay for a two-day primitive camping experience.

A young French woman is one of the camp's 22 counselors this summer. Miss Anne Motin, 21, of Nates, France, is working at the camp for the entire summer, under the auspices of the national Young Women's Christian Association. Camp director is Bill Schlieff.

Openings for Camp Linden are still available for session four, which runs from Aug. 9 to Aug. 23.

To allow more girls to sample Girl Scout camping, this year one-week sessions are being held along with two-week sessions from now until July 12.
